Math (Nash)

We will finish the inequality chapter this week and begin studying for the test on Tuesday, December 16th.

Science (Nash)

We will finish the chapter on stars and begin reviewing for the open note test, which will be on Monday, December 15th.

ELA (Baker)

Reading: We are reading The Best Christmas Pageant Ever this week. This is a hilarious book about a family that has never heard the Christmas story but ends up showing an entire community the true meaning of Christmas!

Vocabulary Test: The final test for the quarter will be on Wednesday, December 10th.

English: The students will take the chapter 3 test on Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Word Study: Please take a minute to quiz your child over their suffixes before Tuesday's test. They are only given 5 to study, but many are not taking the time to review them, and as a result, they're not doing well on their tests. The students will test over #6-10 on Tuesday, the 9th.

Jar of Books: For the month of December, the students may read any genre of books!

History (Newton)

The students are venturing down the Road to Revolution. They are currently studying events that united the colonists against England. We will have our final history test of the semester on Wednesday, December 17. A study sheet will be available a week before on December 10.

Bible (Baker)

This week, we will continue learning about our House of Truth. We will focus on the truth that we are created in God's image, and therefore, we should value the life God has given us as well as all human beings.

Test on Monday, December 15th: Memory Verse: Luke 2:12-14 "And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. "
