Classroom News

This is the last week of the third quarter of school. Hard to believe how quickly this year is going. Homework should be as normal. We will have a verse and a spelling list as well as a History test. Study guides will come home as usual. I try to send home the study guides for history and science a couple of days before the test, so be sure to look for those in your child's binder. Please be sure to check your child's assignment notebook for daily assignments as well. Thank you for recording the minutes your children are reading for the Read-a-thon. It will end Wednesday at 12 midnight. Last prizes will be given on Thursday.
