As We Pay Tribute to the Military—Veterans, Active & Retired

8th. ANNUAL "SALUTE TO THE U.S MILITARY" DINNER

The men and women of the U.S. Military deserve our unwavering recognition and gratitude. Across all branches, these brave individuals selflessly rush toward danger while others seek safety, dedicating their lives to defending our nation in times of war and peace. Often confronting unimaginable challenges, they stand as a beacon of strength and sacrifice. We can honor their service not only by expressing our appreciation but by actively supporting organizations such as the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Disabled American Veterans, ensuring they receive essential resources and assistance. Most importantly, we must never forget the sacrifices they make to safeguard the freedoms we cherish.
