EVENT VISION

TAPESTRY FESTIVAL 2020 highlights the cultural diversity of our City to create a positive, inclusive Community where members feel recognized, accepted, with a strong sense of self.

INVITATION

Tapestry Festival 2020 invites you to celebrate Kamloops rich multiculturalism and diversity by proudly hosting a Cultural Pavilion featuring your country of origin and engaging with visitors.

A performance stage will be erected to feature local and regional artists and talents, and the event will feature a pop-up Art Exhibit, Cultural Foodies Court and Around the World Kids Zone.

We anticipate the advertisement for the event to reach out to over 50,000 people & expect to have 4,000+ visitors attending out Tapestry 2020!

Cultural Pavilion:

- A pavilion is 10' x 10' or 10' x 20'
- Ethno-cultural groups may have a maximum foot print of 20' x 20'
- Cultural pavilions must include an interactive activity
- Hosts can be: a cultural group, a family or group of families, a group of friends
- You will have the opportunity to create a cultural prop or a sign for your pavilion with Kamloops Makespace

Interactive and Engaging:

In addition to featuring exciting cultural displays, see examples of interactive activities a pavilion could feature:

- Exhibits: could include paintings, posters, arts, crafts, jewellery, books, traditional outfits
- Calligraphy: Visitors can have their name written in the country's language
- Kids and parents: Can learn a new traditional game played in your country of origin
- Photo Setting: Visitors can get their photo taken in your country's traditional costume
- Documentary: You could feature a video/audio presentation about your country's history, culture, tourism and a brief Bio about some famous Legends

The applicant's pavilion operations must reflect the culture and heritage of an identifiable ethno-cultural group of which they are a part.

- For the purposes of this application, an ethno-cultural group is defined as: “A group which differs significantly from other groups in some, or all of such cultural components as language, food, dance, dress, music, arts & crafts, and relates to a specific country of origin”
- Please note that there can only be one pavilion per country of origin. We encourage groups to work together to be inclusive where possible.

If the number of applications exceeds the amount of space on site, Tapestry2020 Organizing Committee reserves the right to limit the size of a cultural pavilion and has final approval of all pavilion footprints and locations.
