

My love for food started a long time ago...

When I was 10 years old, I started to work in my Aunt's restaurant just North of Bangkok, running around waiting tables and helping in the kitchen. After school and on weekends, I was there working hard to fill my piggy bank.

It was here where I learnt the discipline of Thai cooking. The recipes for all the different Thai meals are passed down the generations. If you have a Red Curry in the South Islands, it should be the same in Bangkok and the same up North. Cooking is a very big part of our culture, it will be extremely embarrassing if your Red Curry is not better than your neighbours!

After working in restaurants my whole life, I finally decided to start my own little business, sharing my Traditional Thai food with you. In Thailand, we get all our food from markets and street vendors, which is made fresh every time. All our food is made fresh to order as well. There might be a bit of a delay when we are busy, but we will try to get your food to you as soon as possible. Thanks for your patience with this.

What I love to do is give my customers Traditional Thai food. I'm very passionate in sticking to the phrase "How you would get it in Thailand?", using the four pillars of our cooking:

Sour – Sweet – Salty – Spicy

Thank you for coming to try my food.

*All our food is made fresh to order.
There will be a bit of a delay as we perfect your dish.
Thanks for your patience.*
