2026 BARBARA PROTHRO SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

In 1979, the APWU Postal Office Women for Equal Rights (POWER) was created at their 1st Biennial POWER Convention in St. Louis, Missouri. The APWU POWER Sisters would like to acknowledge the woman pioneer who came before us within our local. Sis. Barbara Prothro was a true pioneer of the Women's Movement in APWU. Sis. Prothro held several positions at the local and national level of the APWU organization. In 2024, the Barbara Prothro scholarship program was created, this will provide educational and technical assistance to the children of the St. Louis Gateway District Area Local members and dues paying retirees. It will award $500.00 (one male and one female) to apply towards their four-year college tuition or vocational training.

**This is a separate scholarship from the National APWU****
**Apply for Both****

STUDENT ESSAY

---

Submit a 350-to-500-word essay on ONE of these topics:

- How would you use social media to organize an APWU rally (at the main branch of your local post office) with the theme “U.S. Mail is Not for Sale”?
- What is the current and future impact of computer technology on postal service work? Discuss the pros and cons of collective bargaining to protect traditional postal work (e.g. mail collection, sorting, processing and delivery).
- For future employment, what will be the benefits for you to work for a company where workers have a union, as opposed to a company where no union exists?

[The essay will provide the most points in the evaluation of your application]

Applicants are expected to use encyclopedias, textbooks, and the Internet, but do not cut and paste text from the Internet without crediting your source(s). Use of biographies, bulletins, newspaper articles, the APWU newsletter, reports from private organizations or governmental agencies, personal interviews with union personnel (other than their parents) and other research materials deemed appropriate as sources of information. All research materials must be properly cited and documented.

The student must return ALL FORMS AND MATERIALS TO STLGDAL by June 30, 2026
