

A New Title from Mascot Kids!

Hudson's Monarch Nursery

Story by Laurie Sharp & Art by Rachel Novel

Learn how to safely collect monarch caterpillars off the milkweed with Hudson's help.

Every year, like clockwork, a young boy named Hudson visits the same hidden, special spot to find monarch butterfly caterpillars. He takes to heart the message, "If you remove something from nature or its natural habitat, you must learn how to take care of it." With a little help from BeBe the horse, follow along as Hudson explores the monarch nursery and discovers the remarkable, wondrous circle of life!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Laurie Sharp is the author of Hudson's Monarch Nursery and The Day Sweetie Pie Died. She has been a teacher for more than three decades. Nature and its wondrous cycle of life inspire her writing and outdoor teaching. Laurie splits her time between her ranchette in Central Texas and her family's lake house in the Northwoods of Wisconsin. When not writing, she can be found caring for and being inspired by her pets, farm animals, wildlife, and multiple gardens.
