A Note from the Director

Ashley Bazer
Director

"To love another person is to see the face of God."

The year was 1987. I had just started my theatrical career by hiding under a platform to run sound effects via boombox for my middle school's spring drama. When I wasn't needed under the stage, my headphones were connected to my Sony Walkman, taking in all the Broadway vibes. That year and the next saw some huge hits—Into the Woods, Phantom of the Opera...and Les Misérables.

This show has been woven into the fabric of my life. I've longed for love On My Own with Eponine. I've stepped into Red and Black revolution with Enjolras. I've suffered and Dreamed a Dream with Fantine. I've prayed Bring Him Home with Valjean. It seems only fitting to be leading this brilliant cast, crew, and team of directors in a production that closes on a milestone birthday of mine. Victor Hugo's powerful story is full of tragedy, heartache, and emotion. And even though it's terribly sad (and pretty much every character dies), it's also gripping, beautiful, and delivers a solid message about the redemption we find in our Lord and Savior.

"The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.
Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all." Psalm 34:18-19

While I have known the show for some time, studying it as a director has given me new insights. I never understood why Valjean felt such urgency and drive to help Fantine. But during our auditions, when we had brother and sister Luke and Lily Mills perform together, it struck me that Valjean sees his sister—the one for whom he stole bread and went to jail for nineteen years—in Fantine. He aims to honor God and redeem those years in prison by caring for Fantine's daughter. Javert's family of origin was, as he says, "from the gutter". He was born in a prison, his father serving in the galley while his mother was a fortune teller. Swinging the pendulum the other way, he fights his entire life to live by the law...until the law meets mercy and grace. Isn't it interesting how our past can affect our choices for our future? And how the simple act of placing our lives in God's hands can change everything?

Guiding these young adults through our Les Mis journey has been a highlight of my life. They've worked so hard—dedicating many hours to learning the various aspects of this difficult musical, giving up free time to build and paint our set, and faithfully enduring the brutally emotional events of the barricade. I am proud of each one. For their commitment to their fellow actors and directing team. For upholding the vision of this show. For putting their hearts and souls into creating beautiful moments for their audience.

And to the cast—I am eternally grateful for your love, your support, and your belief in me as your director. Thank you. I love you. Always.

In Christ Alone,
Ashley Bazer

In Memory of Elsie Smith

Elsie was the kind of woman who I wanted and strive to be like. Elsie was an incredible example of a Godly woman. She is my inspiration to be more like Jesus, and to seek after Him. She made an incredible impact on my life and my faith that I'll remember as long as I live. Thank you, Elsie. - Violet Paul

I only got to know Elsie for 2 years and those two years getting to know her were amazing. She was so kind and outgoing and very loving. Her voice was like an angel. I loved Elsie so much. - Kaitlyn Hughes

It has been our amazing privilege to have gotten to have known Elsie through Peter Pan, and what an amazing, gifted and Godly young woman! In dedicating Les Mis to Elsie's memory we hope to honor all that she has meant to the Rise community and to our family. She will forever be in our hearts... --

The Paul Family

I LOOKED UP TO ELSIE AS A PERFORMER AND A FRIEND. SHE MADE ME FEEL LOVED, SEEN, AND IMPORTANT. MR. AND MRS. SMITH, YOU RAISED AN INCREDIBLE WOMAN OF GOD AND I AM FOREVER GRATEFUL FOR YOUR INSPIRING DAUGHTER. - AVERY JOHNSON

Elsie was such a huge inspiration to me and to so many others. She was always so kind and encouraging and always went out of her way to make sure the people around her felt loved and cared for. Her love for the Lord was very evident and that is something I will always remember. She inspired me not only as a performer and dancer, but also as a person. I will forever be so grateful to have known Elsie and that God placed her into so many people's lives. We love and miss her so much but know that she is in a much better place now and will see her again one day<3 --Lily Mills

I don't think you knew how much I liked you! I always looked up to you, especially when you're acting because of your talent and your kindness. I strived to be like you now and during Peter Pan. You never realize how much you miss someone until they're gone, and I feel that more than ever now that you aren't here.

Wait for me in Heaven, Elsie Smith! I love you ❤️ - Macy Jacobson

Elsie, You shined your light. You ran the race well. You are in the arms of Jesus now and dancing and praising Him with all your might. Those that know Jesus will see you soon and very soon. We love you girl! - The Hughes Family

I'll never forget Elsie's encouraging spirit and how she shined the light of Jesus to everyone she met! Elsie believed in me even when I didn't believe in myself, and I hope to see and treat others how she did. - Josie

Elsie was the best person I ever knew, she was faithful and strong but she could be silly and sarcastic. I used to call her a Rubik's Cube because I never knew which version of her I would get to enjoy. I will miss her so much!

- Lila Kent

In Memory of Elsie Smith

We enjoyed being in Peter Pan with Elsie. She was nice & included everyone. She invited me to sit by her at lunch on one of our first practices. She is missed! - Emma & Lily Smith

I enjoyed every moment I spent around Elsie and I don't regret one. She inspired me to be more like Jesus, share him with others, and use the gifts he gave me to honor him. Elsie made me feel so loved and acknowledged. -Lucy Back

ELSIE WAS A TRUE JOY TO WORK WITH IN PETER PAN, JR. SUCH A SWEET SPIRIT. AND ALTHOUGH I KNEW HER FOR ONLY THOSE SHORT EIGHT WEEKS OF PRODUCTION, I AM HONORED TO HAVE KNOWN HER. BLESSINGS TO THE SMITH FAMILY. WE LOVE YOU. - ASHLEY BAZER

Elsie was Ruby's show sib for Peter Pan. Ruby will forever remember how kind Elsie was to her. Elsie was hardworking, caring, compassionate, and truly loved others. The Mills Kids all looked up to her as a friend, talented actress, and Christian.

She is so missed! - The Mills Family

We were privileged to know Elsie. Her innate ability to serve others and serve God and of course her precious smile will forever be engrained in our hearts.

Much love to the Smith family.

- The Helm Family

Elsie carried a tender, loving kindness that touched my heart & undoubtedly touched many others as well. There was a contagious fire in her that was beautiful. She inspires me to be more than myself, to be a strong independent servant of God. Glory to God for gracing our lives with Elsie, may she Rest In Peace. - Luke Mills

Elsie showed me how to be confident and still kind. I know she's cheering us on from Heaven. - Hope Bazer

I love and miss Elsie so very much. Elsie was someone whom I could always turn to. She could always make me laugh or smile & she was one of the most encouraging people in my life. Elsie always reminded me of how loved I am, whether that be through text messages, handwritten notes, hugs, or gift bags filled with cookie butter (I still don't know what she saw in cookie butter haha) she never failed to love me well. Elsie loved the Lord with her whole heart & her love for the gospel inspired me to pursue the Lord even more. I am so grateful that God gave me Elsie. - Jaysa Rorabaugh

Elsie was so kind, warm and welcoming to Abbie and our whole family. She remembered Abbie from Turning Pointe/STARK and made an effort to talk to and include her. We love her still, and miss her, especially Abigail. But we are so excited to get to spend eternity with her! We love you Smith Family! - The Strand Family

I didn't know Elsie for very long, but for the time that I did know her she was amazing in every way. She would always be the one to encourage you, joke with you, and talk through things with you that may have been hard. I will always miss Elsie, but I have comfort in knowing she's dancing with the Lord. - Lila Paul

We love you and miss you so much, Elsie!! Thanks for always being such a great friend and shining the love of Jesus to everyone around you. We'll miss seeing your sweet smile and hearing your contagious laughter! --The Krug Family
