

Join Us For An Evening Of Fun, Laughter And Great Entertainment!

The Queen of All Saints Variety Guild will be performing the Variety Show, It's All In the Delivery, to help raise money for Turner Syndrome Support for St. Louis! If you haven't attended in years past, we should warn you - bring a change of underwear because this show will have you laughing so hard!

This year's production is It's All in the Delivery – a musical comedy about a mail carrier who invites the audience along as he finishes out his last days before retirement. You'll be surprised to meet some of his unusual postal patrons and see the bizarre situations he encounters along the way. We hope that you will join us- this show is sure to “deliver” an evening of fun and laughter!

When: Friday, April 26, 2019 at 7:30pm – Doors open at 6:30pm

Where: Queen of All Saints Church, 6603 Christopher Road, St. Louis, MO 63129
