

Join Us For An Evening Of Fun, Laughter And Great Entertainment!

The Queen of All Saints Variety Guild will be performing the Variety Show, Parental Guidance, to help raise money for Turner Syndrome Support of St. Louis! If you haven't attended in years past, we should warn you - bring a change of underwear because this show will have you laughing so hard!

We hope you'll join us for the tale of what happens when parents decide to interfere in their child's life. Chaos and hilarity ensue, as one royal prince finds out what it means to receive...

parental guidance

When: Friday, April 24, 2020 at 7:30pm – Doors open at 6:30pm

Where: Queen of All Saints Church, 6603 Christopher Road, St. Louis, MO 63129

Cost: $25.00 for an individual ticket or $250 for a table of 10. Pick up online tickets at Will Call the evening of the performance. Mention "Turner Syndrome" for ticket purchases at the door.

Price Includes: Unlimited beer, wine, coffee, soda and popcorn.
Feel free to bring your own food as well!

Kids are welcome - This is a family event!

Benefit for Turner Syndrome Support of St. Louis:
$20 of each $25 ticket purchased goes directly to Turner Syndrome Support of St. Louis!

To Purchase Tickets: Contact Cheryl Jost at 314-606-0779 or cheryljost@sbcglobal.net

www.tss-stl.org