The Don José Verdugo Chapter, Daughters of the America Revolution, NSDAR, honored local high school students with the organization's Good Citizens Award during a recent luncheon event held in Pasadena. The young women were selected for their outstanding qualities of service, leadership, dependability and patriotism.

Barbara Rogers, who chaired the awards program, introduced the students and presented them with a certificate of award; Good Citizen lapel pin; copy of the U.S. Constitution; DAR material and a monetary award.

During the presentation, each student introduced their parents and a school representative in attendance and spoke about their future and where they plan to attend college.
