WELCOME

We welcome our visitors, and we are happy to have you worship with us this morning. Please join us again. You are always welcome.

OUR CONDOLENCES to the family and friends of Richard Keller. Richard fell asleep in Christ on Thursday, December 17, 2020. Richard will be laid to rest with full military honors at Fort Snelling cemetery on Wednesday, December 30th at 11:00 am. There will be no service.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

2 Samuel 7:4 – “But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan. . .” Nathan thought David’s idea was great, so he blessed it with the Lord’s name. But, later that night, the Word of the Lord set him straight. The Word of the Lord must be the basis for what we think, say, and do in God’s Kingdom – not our own desires or whims.

THANK YOU for all the prayers, cards, and flowers I received during my absence for illness and the passing of my Mother. I feel very fortunate to work for Concordia where I am not just your secretary, but I have been welcomed as one of your own. Miriam Kostecki

SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Our new Bible study is entitled, Thinking of heaven. Here are a few questions we will address: What will we be doing in heaven? Will we know each other in heaven? What will produce the greatest joy in heaven? Will some enjoy a greater degree of glory than others? Why can I be sure about going to heaven? How much time should we spend thinking about heaven? What are some common misconceptions about heaven?

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Join us for our study, When You Must Wrestle with God (a short study on the Book of Job). Wrestling with God is what we do when we need an answer from God regarding our latest struggle which makes no sense. As we cry out seeking his comfort, God is sure to issue us his blessing, which he gives us in his Word.

Thank you to John and Marcia Lally for organizing the purchasing, delivery and set-up of the poinsettias this year. See the special insert included in this week’s bulletin.
