

Finally, a way to make Language Arts and Classic Literature EDU-Taining and FUN! Using his love of Shakespeare and Hip Hop, Devon Glover will inspire your youth to look into literature and poetry like never before! The Sonnet Man is a new way to get kids excited about Shakespeare!

Learning the work of Shakespeare through music!

The Sonnet Man brings Shakespeare to students using music they already know and love. Instead of singing songs down the hallways, we hope they start singing sonnets! By performing for them first then breaking down the written word, students experience “aha” moments that have been in literature for hundreds of years!

Benefits of classical literature.

After your students see The Sonnet Man, they will come away with a greater enthusiasm for learning, an increase in creativity, an improved confidence in their communication abilities and literacy, and a greater appreciation for, and desire to participate in, the arts.
