The Entertainment Community Fund

Founded in 1882, the Entertainment Community Fund is a national human services organization here to meet the needs of our entertainment community with a unique understanding of the challenges involved in a life in the arts.

- Social Services and Emergency Financial Assistance
Our free and confidential social service programs address a wide array of challenges faced by people in performing arts and entertainment. Our professional social workers offer support, counseling and practical help. If you would like to speak with a social worker, please complete our application or contact an office nearest to you.
- Career Development and Management
As experts in career counseling, employment training and job development, we're here to help you develop and manage a career in the arts. Our holistic approach takes into consideration the resources you need to manage your arts career, develop freelance and entrepreneurial opportunities, discover meaningful industry-adjacent work or transition to a new career.
- Financial Wellness
The Financial Wellness Program seeks to engage, educate, and empower you about building financial stability. The Financial Wellness Program seeks to engage, educate and empower you about the role of money in your life. Our support can help you with budgeting with multiple and episodic income streams. It can help you solidify your financial goals, identify your economic starting point, and prepare for a change in employment.
- Health Insurance Resource Center and Friedman Health Center for the Performing Arts
Our Artists Health Insurance Resource Center updates its workshops and seminars with comprehensive information on the latest insurance options, provides enrollment assistance for Affordable Care Act plans, and offers online resources, education and literacy tools. Through one-on-one insurance counseling, workshops, and information, the Fund is here to guide you toward the coverage you need for you and your family. The Friedman Health Center for the Performing Arts in Times Square offers primary and specialty care, expedited referrals within the Mount Sinai Health System, extended hours and continuity of care for those who experience regular changes in health insurance coverage.
