APPLIED CREATIVE SCHOLARSHIP: DIRECTOR

- 01/2022-
05/2022 THE IN[HEIR]ITANCE PROJECT: EXODUS COASTAL VIRGINIA
 Assistant Director
 In progress. A devised/new play development. Presenting as part of the 2022 Virginia Arts Festival.
- 09/2021-
11/2021 INTIMATE APPAREL
 Director
 ODU Rep/Old Dominion University
 Presented as part of the mainstage performance season for the Theatre program at Old Dominion University.
 6-week rehearsal process, regulated by COVID-19 protocols and restrictions. From my director statement ‘our redefining of Nottage’s breathtaking text aims to comb out the desires within and expose them at their seams. Our production is a patchwork quilt of woven narratives stitched together over time through the themes of gender, race and class, and religion. We seek to open a space within which to examine, through a different lens, the silhouettes of the “history of the present” and its complicated tensions wrought of contradictory desires.
- 05/2021-
06/2021 THE HIDDEN HISTORY: THE BANJO, A CELEBRATION OF JUNETEENTH
 Director, Project Concept
 Zeiders American Dream Theater
 A devised/new play development. Presented as part of the City of Virginia Beach Cultural Affairs to re-launch their Globally-Inspired Gatherings summer season. The “Hidden History: The Banjo” will premiered as a celebratory piece about Juneteenth as a salute to freedom through expression and creativity. This performance includes an array of music, dance, and spoken word poetry from talented local artists, devised over the span of 5 weeks.
- 09/2020-
11/2020 SYMPTOMATIC: IRL
 Director, Playwright, Project Concept
 ODU Rep/Old Dominion University
 A devised/new play development. Presented as part of the mainstage performance season for the Theatre program at Old Dominion University. Symptomatic: IRL centers on embodying the psychological dilemma and chaos of the COVID-19 pandemic and national regulations. This show intends to amplify the complex narrative that embraces the absurd contradictions of the COVID-19 and its diagnoses/treatments and its adverse effects on our social lives and livelihoods.
- 01/2020-
03/2020 ECHOES: TRANSCENDING THROUGH STORY
 Director, Playwright, Project Concept
 ODU Rep/Old Dominion University
 A devised/new play development. Presented as part of the mainstage performance season for the Theatre program at Old Dominion University. Echoes centered on deliberately targeted the generational echoes of caution and criticism that ring in every woman's ears: that "mother within" whose cautions and criticism benefit only their oppressors.
- The performance had community outreach elements including a panel discussion titled ‘Young Women Talking Change the World: Telling Stories to ignite Social Change.’

11/2016 THE SHAPE OF THINGS
Director
University of Georgia
Presented as part of the studio stage season for the Theatre program at University of Georgia.

04/2016 BEAUTY UNCHAINED
Director, Playwright, Project Concept
University of Georgia
Devised/New Play development. main preface for the project was to embody the essence of Black Theater, script development, devised over the course of the Spring 2016 semester at University of Georgia.
