Part and Line Number: Part VI Line 8

The organization convenes quarterly meetings with its three board members, ensuring contemporaneous documentation is maintained for each session. The absence of subcommittees indicates a direct engagement of the entire board in decision-making processes.

Part and Line Number: Part VI Line 11(b)

No review has been conducted, and no review is planned. The form will be accessible on the organization's website and will also be distributed via email to all eligible voting members for their consideration.

Part and Line Number: Part VI Line 15

An external funding agency played a role in determining board member compensation by awarding grants to certain individuals. The agency's support influenced decisions related to salaries for board members who received these grants, affecting the overall compensation structure. This external input influenced how the organization remunerated specific board members, highlighting the impact of external funding on governance decisions and compensation practices.
