

FAITH NOTES

From The Pastor

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year everyone! What a joy it has been to celebrate this season with this beloved community.

As we turn to a new year and approach Epiphany, I am reminded of your Epiphany celebration last year. The day that I came to Faith for a meet and greet prior to my call vote – the day that I met so many of you for the first time. I walked into the sanctuary with fluttering nerves and shaky hands, but also with a deep sense of hope and excitement. I left with assurance that God had called me to this place, to be your pastor.

Spending the majority of 2025 with you all has been a true gift. When I try to think of a word/phrase to encapsulate this past year, I keep coming back to, “unfolding relationships.” It has been a blessing to be able to form relationships within this community – to watch the way the Spirit has been at work knitting us together. I also know that these relationships are still very much ongoing, some still just starting to take root, and some growing deeper with every passing month.

As we begin 2026, I look forward to watching the ways that these relationships will continue to unfold. I look forward to the ways that I know God will work through Faith Lutheran Church. I look forward to continuing to be church together in this chaotic and beautiful world we live in.

Peace,
Pastor Katie
