Thank you to all who helped with the fall supper! We served a record number of 1,155 meals! We appreciate the many hands that helped make this such a successful event for Faith! Food containers that provided desserts are available for their owners to take home.

Flowers are provided by Glenn and Kathy Shoup this morning in honor of Kathy's mother, Geraldine Miller's birthday.

RiverChor, the gateway area community choir, will perform it's fall concert this afternoon at 2pm at Zion Lutheran Church in Clinton. Admission is free, however offering is appreciated. Our very own Sam Howard has joined the choir and will be performing!

Poinsettias are being ordered this year to display during Advent. Cost is $10.00. If you would like to order a poinsettia in honor of a loved one, order forms can be found in the entryway and can be placed in the offering box with your payment or dropped off in the office.

November 22nd is Christ the King Sunday, marking the end of the liturgical year. To celebrate this occasion, our worship will take place downstairs in the fellowship hall where we will take part in interactive prayer stations inspired by the book "Around the Circle: Celebrating the Church Year" by Claire Westwood and Laura Alary.

The Clinton Ministerial Association is hosting an ecumenical event with soup, songs, and stories shared from three local non-profit groups. The event will be held at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Clinton on Tuesday, November 17th at 5:30pm. Please bring a donation of new or clean socks to donate to organizations assisting with the homeless. A free will offering will be collected.

The Andover Lion's Club will be preparing food baskets for those in need this Christmas season. Contact Pastor Katie or the church office if you know of any families or individuals who could use a food basket.

Bishop Amy Current invites congregations to join her for a Peace Be With You Sunday Gathering in November. She will be leading at Calvary Lutheran Church in Sabula on Sunday, November 22nd from 2-4pm. The gathering includes worship, a presentation, conversation, and a "peace" of pie. You'll learn how mission support makes this work possible and how congregations and ministries are faithfully stewarding their time, talents, gifts, and treasure to serve others. Pastor Katie will be attending this event, contact her for more information.

FLCW is collecting items for the YWCA Empowerment Center to help the homeless until November 16th. A list of items can be found in the entryway and in your newsletter.

Bakeless Bake Sale Envelopes are available for everyone to donate to the Faith Lutheran Church Women treasury. Money donated goes into the FLCW budget for Christmas giving to help area benevolent agencies and supporting other ministries during the next year. Please return the self-addressed envelopes by mail or put them in the offering box at church by November 15th.

Faith Lutheran Church is creating a new pictorial directory! If you are a member, frequent visitor, or friend of Faith, we want to include you! We also want to make sure we have the most current information for all members, visitors, and their families. An information sheet can be found in the entryway and placed in the basket when complete. Please take the time to fill out the form to ensure we have your accurate information. Along with your information, if you have a recent photo of your own you would like to use for the directory, please email it to the church. Please include the release statement if they were taken by an independent photographer. If you are unable to send a photo, there will be opportunities to have your picture taken at the church on Sunday mornings following our 10 a.m. worship.

If you or a loved one is hospitalized and desire pastoral visitation, please contact Pastor Katie or the church office. If you ask a member of the hospital staff to contact us about a hospitalization, they will often be prohibited from doing so by HIPAA laws.
