

Fayetteville Senior Center Code of Conduct 2025

The Fayetteville Senior Center is a community-based not-for-profit organization dedicated to improving, enhancing, and educating the lives of seniors in our community.

This Code of Conduct sets out the expectations of the Center for all individuals, visitors, or workers, who are present on the premises and participate in activities. The purpose is to help maintain a warm, positive, and safe environment for all. Let's be kind, respectful and understanding toward everyone. Treat others the way you would like to be treated. Participation in the Center's programs and use of the Center's facilities are subject to observance of the Center's rules and procedures.

I agree to adhere to this Code of Conduct:

- ❖ I will not be discourteous or rude to any member, staff, or volunteer.
- ❖ I will not use or threaten violence toward anyone.
- ❖ I will not subscribe to gossip and hurtful non truths against anyone
- ❖ I will not bully or take unfair advantage of any member, staff, or volunteer.
- ❖ I will not abuse or damage the Center's facility or its contents.
- ❖ I will not abuse or damage the property of any member, staff, or volunteer.

I understand that if these rules are compromised, I may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including denial of my continuation as a member. I agree to abide by it for as long as I am a member.
