

Basic Instinct

I keep wanting something that is always around me. The most requested Channel.God/Money.

It's like a fish swimming in the Ocean and requesting Water. "It's like, what are you doing? How many times are we going to keep doing this?" (Amelia) So you get the opposite, you get Water.

Have you ever asked the question "How does a fish live underwater, don't we all need oxygen to survive?" They get the opposite, Oxygen.

The Oxygen goes in and mixes with the Hydrogen, the Hydrogen and Oxygen come together and form water which is weird considering the first request but the same water fixes itself to become attached to the Periodic Table to form more Shit which from the (other side)(The System) The Platonic Solids which creates Flesh and Bodies the Solid State cannot operate without a "Spirit" without "Being" being Conscience of its Original Self the Fish Solid State which by "Instinct" – Basic Instinct causes it to Reproduce It's Self.
