

Team	Alignment & Communication
	Team members understand each other's working styles, priorities, and differences.
	The team meets regularly (daily, weekly, Monthly, Quarterly and Annually) to discuss goals and challenges.
	Staff take part in ongoing training or learning sessions monthly.
	Everyone feels comfortable speaking up and joining discussions.
Goals	s & Priorities
	The most important goal for this quarter is clearly defined and understood.
	A key priority measure is chosen to track progress.
	3–5 main priorities are set and ranked to support the goal.
	A quarterly theme and reward are shared with all staff to motivate achievement.
	Progress is posted and updated weekly so everyone stays informed.
Meet	ing Rhythm
	All staff take part in a short daily focus meet up.
	Every team has a weekly meeting to review progress.
	Monthly sessions are held for training, problem-solving, and knowledge sharing.
	Quarterly and annual offsite meetings are held for big-picture planning.
Roles	s & Accountability
	Every area of the business has someone responsible for achieving results.
	The Accountability Chart is clear: right people in the right roles.
	Financial responsibilities are assigned line by line.
	Main business processes have clear owners.
	For long-term goals, external experts are consulted if needed.
Staff	Input & Feedback
	Staff are encouraged to give feedback on obstacles and opportunities weekly.
	Managers check in with at least one team member each week ("Start/Stop/Keep").
	Insights from staff are shared in team meetings.
	A process exists to close the loop on staff feedback.
	11 process times to erose the roop on suit recusion.

Custo	mer reedback
	Customer input is collected as often as financial data.
	Staff regularly speak with customers and share insights in meetings.
	All staff help gather customer feedback.
	A system is in place to act on customer feedback quickly.
Cultu	re & Values
	Core values and company purpose are known and practiced by all staff.
	Praise and feedback reference the values and purpose.
	Hiring, training, and recognition processes align with company values.
	Quarterly actions are taken to strengthen company culture.
Strate	egy Awareness
	Staff know the company's big long-term goal (BHAG).
	Staff understand who the core customers are.
	Brand promises are clear and tracked weekly.
	Staff can confidently answer "What does your company do?"
Indivi	idual Performance
	Each person tracks 1–2 weekly performance indicators (KPIs).
	Each staff member has 1 Performance indicator tied to the company goal.
	Each staff member/team sets 3–5 priorities each quarter.
	Staff are supported by a coach or peer mentor to stay accountable.
Visibi	lity & Tracking
	Company plans and results are visible to everyone.
	A "success room" (physical or virtual) is used for weekly updates.
	Core values, purpose, and priorities are posted around the workplace.
	Scoreboards display live progress on KPIs and Performance indicators.
	A tracking system is in place for priorities and KPIs across all teams.