

My Personal Success Creed

I choose to Live a successful life

It is my right to be successful as I deserve it I choose opportunities to grow and learn I find solutions not road blocks

I will live a wealthy life

Be able to provide for my family and myself To afford the things that I want and the great lifestyle I deserve

I will live a healthy life

I will take care of my body

I will energise my body with healthy food

I will exercise regularly to maintain a healthy fit body

I will live a life aligned to my core values

I will learn and grow every day to be a better person

I will stand for what I believe in while being open to new information and adapt

I love and accept me just the way I am I know that I things about me that I would like to improve on, grow and change however, I love and accept me just the way I am

I am the best me I can be right here right now tomorrow I will learn grow and become a better me

I will always strive for constant and never-ending improvement in myself
