

IZABELLE

BIOGRAPHY SHORT VERSION

Quebec's singer-songwriter IZABELLE, thrills with her magnetic energy, her refreshing authenticity and the depth of her empowered POP with electro funk accents.

A powerful mixture where catchy melodies, dynamic vocals and empowering lyrics meet; directly addressing social issues such as mental health, domestic violence, social pressure, feminism, society's standards, etc.

After performing all over the world for over 15 years, IZABELLE launches in 2020 her first bilingual album "Version 2.0 Deluxe" produced by Alexandre Lapointe (The Brooks). Its 2 radio singles "Amour Bipolaire" and "Self-Talk session v.f." are playing in nearly 50 stations across the country (such as the Rouge fm network), hitting the charts several weeks in a row.

More confident than ever, the independent artist is releasing her new single "Vulnerable" in Spring 2022, The first song of her upcoming 2nd album expected for the end of the year. The songs of the second album are premiered as part of the "VERSION 2.0" show, currently on tour across Quebec.

BIOGRAPHY LONG VERSION

Quebec's singer-songwriter IZABELLE, strikes with her magnetic energy, her vibrant authenticity and the depth of her uninhibited POP with an electro-funk twist.

A powerful mixture where catchy melodies, dynamic vocals and empowering lyrics meet; directly addressing social issues such as mental health, domestic violence, social pressure, feminism, society's standards, etc. Celebrating vulnerability, self-love and growth.

After performing all over the world for over 15 years, IZABELLE launches in 2020 her first album "Version 2.0 Deluxe", a combination of French and in English original songs. Satisfying her long-repressed visceral need to create her own music as well as to write, sing and embody her own stories.

A solid indie production bringing together a team of Quebec's most prolific musicians, including producer and bass player Alexandre Lapointe (The Brooks) and Gautier Marinof (Marc Dupré, Céline Dion, Simple Plan) on recording and mixing.

A strong start for the opus with its 2 radio singles "Amour Bipolaire" and "Self-Talk session v.f.", playing in nearly fifty radio stations across Canada, including the Rouge fm network, charting the top 100 BDS, correspondent and ACANB, in addition to being a CBC Music Searching and Canadian beats weekly beatdown finalist.

IZABELLE releases "Vulnerable" in the spring of 2022, the first single of her upcoming album expected for the end of 2022. In the meantime the new songs are part of the "VERSION 2.0" show currently touring across Quebec.