

IZABELLE

BIOGRAPHY SHORT VERSION

Quebec's singer-songwriter IZABELLE, strikes with her magnetic energy, her refreshing authenticity and the depth of her luminous POP with electro, funk and soul influences.

A powerful mixture where catchy melodies, dynamic vocals and empowering lyrics meet; directly addressing social issues such as mental health, domestic violence, social pressure, feminism, society's standards, etc.

After performing all over the world for over 18 years, IZABELLE launches in 2020 her first bilingual album "Version 2.0 Deluxe" produced by Alexandre Lapointe (The Brooks). The 2 radio singles "Amour Bipolaire" and "Self-Talk session v.f." aired respectively in nearly 50 stations across the country (such as the Rouge fm network), hitting the charts several weeks in a row.

More confident than ever, the independent artist will be releasing a 2nd long-awaited album by the end of 2023. The new songs are showcased in her show "VERSION 2.0" currently on tour across Quebec.

BIOGRAPHY LONG VERSION

Quebec's singer-songwriter IZABELLE, strikes with her magnetic energy, her vibrant authenticity and the depth of her luminous POP with electro, funk and soul influences.

A powerful mixture where catchy melodies, dynamic vocals and empowering lyrics meet; directly addressing social issues such as mental health, domestic violence, social pressure, feminism, society's standards, etc. Celebrating vulnerability, self-love and growth.

After performing all over the world for over 18 years, IZABELLE launches in 2020 her first album "Version 2.0 Deluxe", a combination of French and in English original songs. Satisfying her long-repressed visceral need to create her own music as well as to write, sing and embody her own stories.

A solid indie production bringing together a team of Quebec's most prolific musicians, including producer and bass player Alexandre Lapointe (The Brooks) and Gautier Marinof (Marc Dupré, Céline Dion, Simple Plan) on recording and mixing.

The two radio singles "Amour Bipolaire" and "Self-Talk session v.f.", have aired respectively in nearly fifty stations across the country (including the Rouge fm network and Plaisir fm) making Quebec and N-B top 100 several times, in addition to being among the finalists of CBC Music Searchlight and the Canadian beats weekly beatdown.

More recently, 2022-2023 were marked by the release of "Vulnerable" on the airwaves of 25 stations including Sirius XM Influence Franco, the recent release of new single "Out of F*cks" & "Je ne m'en fais plus (pour des riens)" and a musical collaboration on the latest album of the artist Dominique Hudson. Setting up the tone for the second album of IZABELLE, expected for fall 2023, the new songs are currently showcased in her show "VERSION 2.0" currently on tour across Quebec.
