

The real you

Woke up this morning with a brand new attitude
I'm on a mission, I put my bitch switch on for you
'Cause I'm done acceptin' people steppin' on my shoes
Watch where you're goin', get outta the way if you don't have a clue

I'm done pretending like I don't care
Well it does hurt me, tell me straight to my face
I tried to stay cool about it
But clearly we don't play the same game no...

Well you can hide behind your fake smiles
Others may buy it...but not me nah nah no!
And you can say, whatever you wanna say
But your true colors are shinin' through dear
People ain't stupid, they'll see it too dear
And they will see the real you too dear

You put on a show «I'm selfless and kind» (Look at me!)
But to be fair you're the most ruthless one I know
The things you're sayin' to get people loving you
Then build your spider web so you can feed on 'em to grow

You want 'em to believe you're perfect
Trying so hard to hide you're a mess
Like a snake charmin' your prey
But watch out you're not the only who bites!

Well you can hide behind your fake smiles
Others may buy it...but not me nah nah no!
And you can say, whatever you wanna say
But your true colors are shinin' through dear
People ain't stupid, they'll see it too dear
And they will see the real you too dear

People ain't stupid
And they will see the real you too dear
