W E A R E C H L O E A N D K Y L E .

Thank you so much for taking a look into our world. We are excited to share our family with you and to give you a little glimpse into what we treasure most.

Before we share with you our corner of the world, we want to let you know that we can't begin to imagine what a difficult time this must be for you. The emotions you are feeling and the heartbreak you must be enduring is unimaginable. We want you to know that if you so choose, we want to support you, lift you up, and help you in any way we can.

We want to offer up your name and your unborn child to the Lord, that he grants you strength, the wisdom to move forward with the best plan for YOU and YOUR baby and also peace. Peace to know that whatever choice you make the Lord will carry you.

about me

hello, I'm CHLOE

I am 33 years old. I was born in North Dakota but raised in Oregon. I am a registered nurse and I worked for nine years as a labor and delivery RN at our local hospital but now I help my husband run our businesses. I run the design portion of our retail business, working with clients to create their dream spaces and I could not love it more. Sometimes I wonder if Kyle regrets bringing me on to work with him because while dreaming up spaces for our clients, I inevitably dream up changes for our own home and he is my trusty contractor!!

“Chloe is the absolute love my life.”

ABOUT CHLOE, BY KYLE

When I'm not at the store you can find me in the kitchen. I absolutely love to cook and bake. Nourishing my family and others with homemade food made from quality ingredients is a true passion of mine.

Someday I dream of writing a cookbook. We will see if that ever happens and until then I'll keep testing recipes and looking for the nod of approval from all those around me.

about me

hey, I'm KYLE

I am 33 years old and I was born in California, but moved to Oregon in 1993 with my parents. I have worked many jobs in my life ranging from hardware retail, wildland fire fighting, and agricultural sales, but the only thing that has truly filled my cup is owning our businesses and assisting people create their dream spaces with the help of Chloe's refined eye for design. I have always lived a busy lifestyle, so when I am not working, I can typically be found trying to plan our next adventure or working on a project at our home. I truly enjoy working with Chloe on house projects and seeing them come together through our hard work.

He is the hardest worker and provides for his family so well.

ABOUT KYLE, BY CHLOE

Most mornings you can find me at our local Crossfit gym where I coach classes a few times a week. Fitness has always been a part of my life but it wasn't until I started going to Crossfit that it became a passion of mine. I love that it is something that our whole family can be a part of and how supportive and caring our Crossfit community is.

We first met at the age of four in preschool, however, we then went on our different paths until high school!

In high school Kyle will tell you we were “friends”, but the way I see it, I had the hugest crush on him and he didn’t give me the time of day. Fast forward to the Christmas after high school graduation when I text him “Happy Birthday” and ever since that day we’ve been inseparable. We started dating long distance while I went to college in Kansas and he went to school back home in Oregon. I then moved back home to go to nursing school. We got engaged in 2013, married in 2015, and the rest is history!

WE LOVE TO HOST AND MAKE MEALS WITH OUR FAMILY. SPENDING QUALITY TIME WITH LOVED ONES AND EVERYONE GATHERED AROUND THE TABLE TOGETHER TRULY MAKES US HAPPY.

ABOUT eachother

"Kyle's love and dedication to his family truly sets him apart from others and I am so lucky to call him "mine"!! Kyle is the kindest most outgoing soul. He can carry a conversation with anyone and everyone. Kyle is also a comedian and he thinks all of his "one liners" are the funniest. Many others would agree with me."

WHY WE WANT TO ADOPT

From the beginning of our relationship we knew that adoption would be a part of our story at some point. Fast forward a few years into our marriage and we were diagnosed with infertility. We were given the option to pursue IVF but we both felt so called by the Lord to adopt.

We adopted our two boys in 2016 and 2017. We then adopted four embryos in 2019 and in 2020 we experienced an ectopic pregnancy, followed by a failed transfer in 2021. The Lord has brought us back again to traditional adoption and we both feel that this is where the next member of our family is, we have just yet to meet them.

We are so excited to adopt again!

match AND noah

Match is our oldest son. He is the kindest, most loving eight-year-old you've ever met. Match loves to learn about animals and he is constantly asking our ALEXA animal facts and watching National Geographic animal documentaries. He loves to read history books and can rattle off all sorts of historical facts that neither of his parents can recall from their high school history days. Match joined our family through adoption in 2016. He is Native American and an enrolled member of our local tribe! We have an open relationship with his birth family and see them often.

Noah, our youngest son is also eight. We lovingly refer to him as our "barnacle boy" because if it were up to him, he would be snuggled up or held at all times if we let him and we love him so much for that. Noah is our adventurous one who loves sports and you can often find him carrying around his binder of sports cards. Noah is Caucasian and Hispanic, and he joined our family through adoption as well in 2017. we also have a very open relationship with his birth mother and we keep in contact via email along with visits.

We truly embrace their cultures and incorporate their cultural traditions and practices in our daily lives!

Both of our boys are very into sports.

You can find us on the football field in the fall, the hockey rink all winter, and in the spring we run between the track field and the baseball park. Then finally in the summer we spend our mornings at the pool where Mattch swims on the swim team. We love to keep active as a family and you can often find us at our local CrossFit gym working out as a family or on long family walks in the evenings. The boys love to jump on their bicycles or their dirt bikes and ride ahead while we bring up the rear with the dog.

BOTH MATTCH AND NOAH VERY EXCITED TO BE BIG BROTHERS!

WE LOVE BECAUSE HE LOVED US FIRST.

ABOUT OUR family

We both grew up in very different ways. My upbringing being the oldest of six kids was vastly different from Kyle's upbringing with him being an only child. Kyle quickly grew to love the wildness that is my family. Being the oldest of six kids and the oldest grandchild of 28 on my dad's side, family gatherings are anything but boring. The vast majority of my family lives in our hometown and we see them all regularly, whether it's at church on Sunday, sporting events, or waving as we pass each other on the road from home to work. Kyle's family is much smaller but just as close. His parents live in our hometown as well and we see them multiple times each week. We are also very close with Kyle's cousins and regularly vacation together. We have a yearly trip that we take with all the cousins in the summer and we try to spend every other Thanksgiving with them in Reno so the little cousins can spend time together. We also LOVE to go to Disneyland with Kyle's side of the family. We all think it is just the most magical place to take our kids and spend quality family time together there. We have made some of the best memories together at Disneyland and look forward to these trips every time.

We are so grateful we live close to all of our family.

Sundays consist of church and family dinner most weeks. Living close to family has been such a blessing. Having our kids grow up close to their cousins and grandparents is so amazing and incredibly important to Kyle and I both. Our families are always supporting our boys by showing up to their sporting events and/or school events which is so special.

THIS IS HOME

OREGON

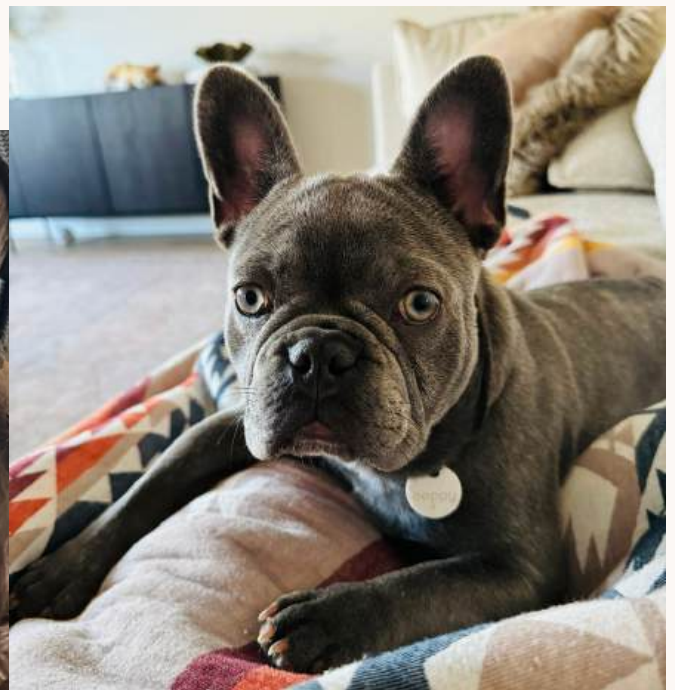

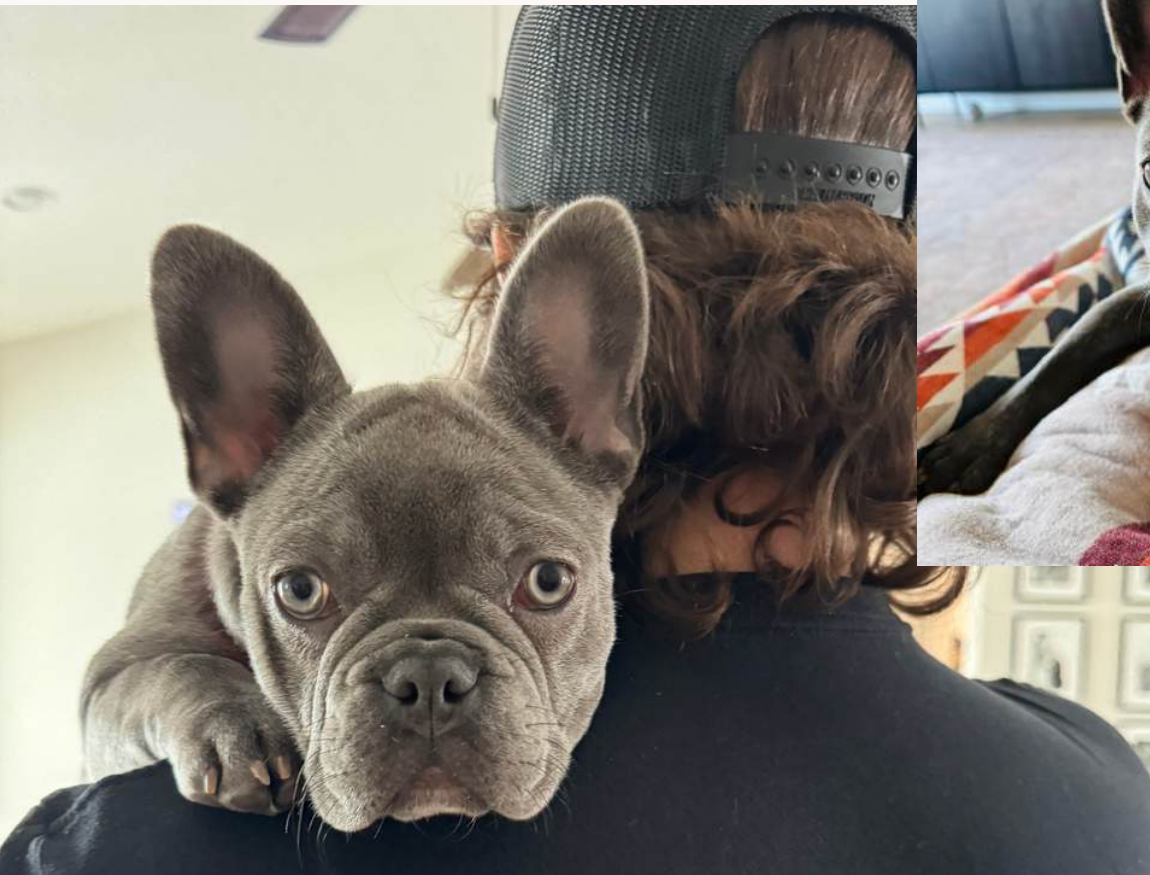

IS WHERE WE LAY OUR HEADS

We live in the sweetest little house that we purchased from Kyle's Grandmother before she passed. Our home sits in a quiet, family-centered neighborhood where we are surrounded by our friends and the boys' schoolmates. Most summer evenings the cul-de-sacs are full of kids on bikes and lawn chairs with parents chatting while kids ride by. Our home has four bedrooms with plenty of space for us. Last summer Kyle built a large deck off the back that has become our main living area in the spring and summer when the weather warms up. We cook out there most nights and gather around the firepit to play card games under the stars in the evenings. Just down the street from our home is a great park that we walk to regularly.

ABOUT POPPY

Poppy is our almost two-year-old French Bulldog and she is the sweetest pup. She loves kids as well as playing and going on family walks. You can usually find her in either Noah's arms or in Kyle's lap most days.

We have really taken the approach that memories and quality time with family truly is the best gift.

Traveling is one of our families' favorite things to do and it's something that we prioritize. Traveling to a new location and getting to experience new things with our family is something we don't take for granted. Last summer we traveled to Italy, we spent a week just the four of us, and then met up with my family for a week in Tuscany creating memories that will last a lifetime

WE ALSO LOVE TO TRAVEL LOCALLY. WE ENJOY GOING TO THE COAST, THE LAKE, AND OUR FAMILY'S CABIN IN NORTHERN IDAHO.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU-

No matter if you choose our family or not we promise to pray for you moving forward. If we are chosen to raise your child we promise to love them unconditionally forever. We promise to build a relationship with you built on trust, respect and understanding. We promise to always speak highly of your unwavering love and courage in our family. We promise to honor your child's heritage and where they came from and to encourage a safe and healthy relationship with you. We promise to be here forever for both you and your baby.

ALL OUR LOVE
