The Word Peace in the Bible is from the Greek Word eireini and refers to a mental attitude of tranquility based on a relationship with God.

An undisturbed state of mind Absence of mental conflict. The peace God is talking about here is the kind of peace that you can have even in the time of war, anxiety or when there is “mental conflict”. According to the Oxford dictionary, a covenant is defined as “an agreement believed to be the bases of a relationship of commitment between God and His people the demands of God’s covenants.”

Psalm 25:10 (NIV)

“All the ways of the Lord are loving and faithful toward those who keep the demands of his covenant”.

For any of God’s covenants to operate in anybody’s life, that person must keep the demands of that very covenant. Whenever covenant demands are not kept, it becomes a violation of that covenant, which also means that God is no longer committed to that very covenant until there is restoration through repentance.

God's covenant of peace does not prevent us from going through difficult times, but it prevents us from being surmounted by difficult times. In the book of Job 1:21, Job, in the heat of his trouble made a statement of victory by saying, "...may the name of the Lord be praised", because he was under the covering of God's covenant of peace. When you are under God's covenant of peace the devil is not allowed to touch you without getting permission from God first, just as in the case of Job. This means that God can only allow the devil to touch you with those troubles you can overcome. Whenever a covenant is broken or violated, the contrary covenant is entered automatically. Whenever a child of God commits sin. His covenant with God is broken immediately, and automatically he enters Satan's covenant. If the sin remains, the devil's covenant and its consequences will stay also.

This is why whenever a child of God commits sin, the first thing he will experience is restlessness (absence of peace) because he has just entered into another covenant that is strange to the Spirit of God inside him, and the current that flows from this strange covenant makes the Spirit, as well as the child of God uncomfortable.

Man cannot accomplish the supernatural peace of God by his own merit; rather it is the Lord IN us who will bring about this peace, as Isaiah 26:12 says, “Lord, You will establish peace for us, for you have also done all our works IN us”. All the focus and attention must be put on Jesus, who is the only reason that we have access to this wonderful Covenant of Peace which will soon be a reality in the earth. He paid the highest price of His life for our peace, as Isaiah 53:5 shows us “the chastisement of our peace was upon Him”.

“For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed”. Mountains and hills are Scriptural symbols for ruling authorities.

“But my steadfast love shall not depart from you (the Lord’s Bride/wife). And My covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the Lord who has compassion on you”
Isaiah 54:10. This Covenant of Peace will extend into eternity.

1 Corinthians 1:3 (KJV)

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ezekiel 34:25-27 (KJV)

And I will make with them a covenant of peace and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

Zechariah 8:10-19 (KJV)

For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men everyone against his neighbor.

But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the Lord of hosts.

For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so, will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

For thus saith the Lord of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the Lord of hosts, and I repented not:

So again, have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not?

These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the Lord.

And the word of the Lord of hosts came unto me, saying,

*Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

Ezekiel 37:25-27 (KJV)

And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince forever.

Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Malachi 2:4-6 (KJV)

And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the Lord of hosts.

My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me and was afraid before my name.

The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity and did turn many away from iniquity.

Isaiah 54:9-11 (KJV)

For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so, have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

Haggai 2:9 (KJV)

The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts.

Jesus is the Prince of Peace!

Hebrews 13:20 (KJV)

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

COVENANT OF PEACE IN TIME OF PROSPERITY

*“I will make a covenant of peace with them, it will be an everlasting covenant, I will establish them and increase their numbers, and I will put my sanctuary among them forever”. Ezekiel 37:26

To be increased is to be prospered, multiplied, promoted, or enlarged. It is our covenant right to enjoy peace and prosperity all at the same time, not only spiritually, but physically also. It is incredible that some people believe that the presence of prosperity in one’s life means the absence of peace; hence, they hate prosperity.

They believe that if they are poor, they must watch their back or have sleepless nights, how sad. The covenant of peace we have in God guarantees our protection and the protection of everything we own. The presence of peace in our lives expels fear from our lives. When God said, “I am making a covenant of peace with you” it means that you are protected from anything, anyone, or any power that may want to disturb your peace in any way; it means peace in your business, job, finances, family, marriage etc., because you have been established by the Lord and sealed with the covenant of peace.

The ministry of the devil is to steal, kill, and destroy according to John 10:10.

He does not only want to steal your peace, but he also wants to kill and destroy it so that you will live miserably for the rest of your life. He will not succeed in your life if you do not let him. You can rise above that depression, that pain, that rejection, or whatever ugly situation you are in right now, which the enemy is using to steal your peace. You can stop his demons from stealing your peace, they want to destroy it completely; do not allow them to get to that level in your life.

A life without peace is no life at all, which is why the Covenant that God provided for us is that of life and peace.

True peace does not come from extreme indifference, nor does it originate from becoming so “spiritual” that you fail to notice the world around you. Peace is the fruit of being confident in God’s love; it is born of the revelation that, regardless of the battle, “greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world” 1 John 4:4.

You are not self-assured, you are God-assured.

The God of Peace Will Crush Satan.

To wage effective spiritual warfare, we must understand and use spiritual authority. Spiritual authority, however, is not forcing your will upon another person. When you have spiritual authority, you have established God’s peace in an area that once was full of conflict and oppression. Therefore, to truly be able to move in authority, we must first have peace.*

The apostle Paul taught, “The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet” Romans 16:20. When we maintain peace during warfare, it is a crushing deathblow to satanic oppression and fear. Our victory never comes from our emotions or our intellect. Our victory comes by refusing to judge by what our eyes see, or our ears hear and by trusting that what God has promised will come to pass.

We will never know Christ’s victory in its fullness until we stop reacting humanly to our circumstances. When you truly have authority over something you can look at that thing without worry, fear or intimidation. Your peace is the proof of your victory. Jesus’ authority over the violent storm in Matthew 8:23-27 was the exercise and expansion of His peace over the elements. He did not fight against the storm, nor did He fear it. In perfect peace, He faced its fury and subdued it with His authority.

Matthew 8:23-27 (KJV)

And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

And He saith unto them, why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

But the men marveled, saying, what manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

In Pilate's court, in a world stirred to an emotional frenzy by the powers of Hell, a holy tranquility surrounded Christ – peace that was born out of His resolve to do God's will no matter what the cost. His Spirit emanated a calm that perfectly represented the peace at God's throne. In a matter of moments, it was no longer

Jesus who was on trial, but Satan, Pilate and the religious establishment in Israel.

Satan's arsenal consists of such things as fear, worry, doubt and self-pity. Every one of these weapons robs us of peace and leaves us troubled inside. Do you want to discern where the enemy is coming against you? In the network of your relationships, wherever you do not have peace, you have war. Conversely, wherever you have peace, you have victory.

When Satan hurls his darts against you, the more peace you have during adversity, the more truly you are walking in Christ's victory.

Paul tells us to be "in no way alarmed by your opponents – which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you" Philippians 1:28. Your immovable peace stand upon the Word of God is a sign that you are positioned correctly in focused submission to the will of God.

The very fact that you are “in no way alarmed” by your adversary is a sign that you have authority over him.

Philippians 1:28

And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

Peacemakers Are Sons of God

Peace is Spirit power. Peace is an attribute of the Holy Spirit, and when you are walking in peace, you are walking in power. A peacemaker is not merely someone who protests war; he is one who is inwardly so yielded to Christ in spirit and purpose that he can be called a son of God Matthew 5:9. Where he goes, God goes and where God goes, he goes. He is fearless, calm and bold. Peace emanates from him the way light and heat radiate from fire.

In the battles of life, your peace is a weapon. Indeed, your confidence declares that you are not falling for the lies of the devil.

You see, the first step toward having spiritual authority over the adversary is having peace despite our circumstances. When Jesus confronted the devil, He did not confront Satan with His emotions or in fear. Knowing that the devil was a liar, He simply refused to be influenced by any other voice than God's. His peace overwhelmed Satan. His authority then shattered the lie, which sent demons fleeing.

Rest Before Rule

In the 23rd Psalm, David declared, “Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for you are with me” verse 4. There is a place of walking with God where you simply “fear no evil”. During his lifetime, David faced many enemies including a lion, a bear and a giant. In this Psalm he stood in the “shadow of death” itself, yet he feared no evil.

David's trust was in the Lord. He said, "you are with me". Because God is with you, every adversity you face will unfold in victory as you maintain your faith in God.

David continued, "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies" verse 5. The battle you are in will soon become a meal to you, an experience that will nourish and build you up spiritually.

Only God's peace will quell your fleshly reactions in battle. The source of God's peace is God Himself. Indeed, "before the throne there was something like a sea of glass, like crystal" Revelation 4:6. The glass sea is a symbol: there are no ripples, no waves, and no anxieties troubling God. The Lord is never worried, never in a hurry nor without an answer. The sea around Him is perfectly still and totally calm. All our victories flow out from being seated here with Him. God is our Father. The heavenly Jerusalem is our mother, the birthplace of our new nature Galatians 4:26. And you, you are a beloved child of God, part of the Father's family and a member of His household Ephesians 2:19. You must know by revelation that you are not struggling to get into Heaven; rather, you were born there in spiritual rebirth John 3:1-8 (AMP). Let your heart be settled and positioned correctly in your relationship with the Almighty.

To those who have been born again from above, He says, *“Sit at My right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet” Psalms 110:1. Before you go into warfare, recognize that it is not you that the devil is afraid of; it is Christ in you! *We have been raised up and seated with Christ in heavenly places Ephesians 2:6. This is why the Holy Spirit continues to speak to us that worship of God is our first response in battle. Position yourself in the presence of God. Sit, at rest, in the knowledge that Christ has already made your enemies the footstool for your feet. From a position of rest, the Word of the Lord continues, “The Lord will stretch forth your strong scepter from Zion, saying, 'Rule amid your enemies'"

Psalm 110:2.

Rest precedes rule. Peace precedes power. Do not seek to rule over the devil until you are submitting to God's rule over you. The focal point of all victory comes from seeking God until you find Him, and after finding Him, allowing His presence to fill your spirit with His peace. From full assurance at His right hand, as you rest in His victory, so will you rule amid your enemies.
