

THE EDGAR WIND ART WRITING PRIZE 2026–27

How to Enter

Please send your entry by email to prize@edgarwindsociety.org by 23:59 GMT on Sunday 15 November 2026.

Your email should have the subject line:

Art Writing Prize 2026: Submission

Please attach two separate PDF files:

1. Your essay

Your essay must be anonymous. Please do not include your name, college, course, email address, acknowledgements, or any other identifying information in the document.

Please name the file:

AWP Essay – [Essay Title].pdf

Do not include your own name in the filename.

2. Your completed submission form

Please complete the official Edgar Wind Art Writing Prize Submission Form and attach it separately. It is available to download at www.edgarwindsociety.co.uk/prize.

Please name the file:

AWP Submission Form – [Your Name].pdf

The submission form contains your contact and eligibility information and will be kept separate from your essay during anonymous judging.

Before submitting, please check that:

- Your essay is within the permitted word limit
- Your essay contains no identifying information
- All quotations and sources have been appropriately acknowledged
- Any images included have captions and source information where available

- You have completed all required declarations on the submission form
- Both files are attached to your email

You do not need to include a covering letter, biography, abstract, CV, or explanation of your submission.

Receipt of entries will be acknowledged by email. If you have not received an acknowledgement within 3 working days, please contact the President at president@edgarwindsociety.org.

If you experience a technical problem shortly before the deadline, contact the Society via prize@edgarwindsociety.org as soon as possible. A technical issue does not automatically guarantee acceptance of a late entry.
