Biography continued

Karna's art provides the backdrop for every aspect of the web site. You can order some of her paintings through her web site KarnaPeck.com.

I began writing the children's books at the request of Karna because she needed an excuse to draw more frogs. I began writing other books a few years ago and went to Karna's studio to select paintings to decorate them with. After a while, she approached me with the idea that she wanted me to come up with 12 books.

I had already written a few children's books, so we decided to use them as an excuse to get together a few times a year and 'play'. You might say we haven't done a very good job of growing old.

It is our hope that by reading these books you will be able to step back in time and loose a few wrinkles as well. Enjoy. Sheri.
