Into the Midst of God

God's word to me interpreted: Jesus Christ was really born.

-The Third one is a picture of lamb. It looked perfect with black hoofs and pearly white fur and a cute little black nose.

God's word to me interpreted: Jesus is the Saviour of the World: the perfect Lamb which was given for us.

There are many examples I could give because God has saved my life over and over, but for the sake of making my JP point, I leave you with these two.

3 visions

I want you to know the three visions.

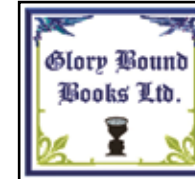

-The first one is a picture of the back of Moses with Hebrew robes on. His hands are out stretched. Before him is the red sea dividing.

God's word to me interpreted: Those five books Moses wrote are of God.

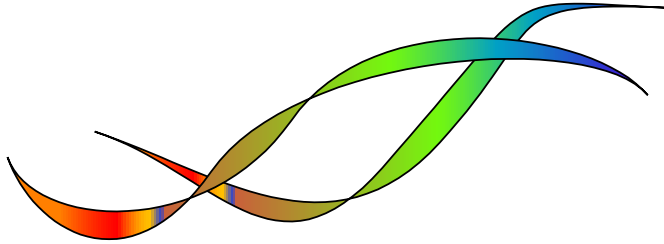

-The Second one is the star of Bethlehem over a barn with a black horse decked out in jewels. It looked as though one of the Kings had been there.

2- One day I was riding my motorcycle back to my apartment. As I made a U-Turn I fell off my motorcycle in four lanes of traffic (with a middle turn lane). I fell into the one of the middle lanes losing my bike. A guy driving a big linen truck saw go down and stopped to help. I was so freaked out that I picked my motorcycle and carried it to the sidewalk. (I'm not sure where I got that sudden strength from.)

A green Ford LTD came right in front of me and nearly hit me as I attempted to get out of the street. He missed me by seconds because He didn't see me and I didn't see him. I went to the hospital with a pulled heart muscle and stayed there three days and they released me. When I carried my bike to the side of the road, I strained my heart muscles. It was only the perfect timing of God that protected me from death.

Again, I remembered my JP amidst danger.

As these weapons to my head and throat, I began repenting; sincerely and deeply.

Amidst tears, I cried out to God, “God have mercy on me and I am sorry for my sins. I beg of You; I implore you, forgive me of my sins.”

In the midst of my pain, the Lord answered me. He said, “Son, if you die now, you will go to heaven.”

All of a sudden all of my tears were turned off just like the water stopped at the faucet when you turn it off. When they found no more use for me, they disposed of me like a bag of trash.

As they began to drive off, they rolled me out of the car like a ball into the gutter of the street. I looked up and noted their license plate.

I reported the crime and the detectives came to interview me at my workplace. When I was shown pictures, I couldn’t recognize their faces because they had all worn the same color navy blue stocking cap.

After a few near-death experiences I came to believe that JP meant nothing other than 'Jesus Protects'. Let me share a few of the reasons why I hold my cigarette message in such high esteem.

1- Several years later, I was at a bus stop and five bandits pulled over in their car and asked me for directions. They flashed a business card and ask if I knew how to get there.

I said, "Of course, that is where I am going."

They said, "Well, get in the car and show us the way."

I sat between the driver and another guy in the front seat. (There were a total of 6 of us in the car by now.) We turned down an alley and they pulled over to the side of the road. Then someone put a gun to the back of my head while another put a knife to my throat. I was stripped of my jewellery and wallet and everything valuable that I had on me.

“Is this a miracle?”

So, I showed it to my cell mates and wondered about what it could mean. All we could deduce was that it had something to do with hitting a jackpot. ‘I must have had the lucky cigarette.’

My head was spinning. It was like I had scrambled eggs being cooked; it just went round and round. So, I laid down on my bunk and put the cigarette in my pillow case under my head and went to sleep.

When I woke up, the cigarette was gone. I tried to figure out where it went.

I accused the other cell mates of taking my lucky cigarette. But, they didn’t look like they took it, so I abandoned that issue and continue to ponder about what happened.

What could this mean, ‘J.P’.

Letter from the Author

I do want to point out that during my prayer life the Lord blessed me in many ways and kept me in the midst of God things. The following is a few of the miracles that He performed in my life by working His wonderful will the way He does moving mysteriously for those who love Him.

Some of this testimony is mysterious and alarming, but if you will read on and take to heart the true valid miracles that have happened and look at them in the light of God being good.

Forward

Ladies and gentleman this is mature prophetic meat and potatoes. It is what the Doctor ordered for you to be prepared for the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is very profound; very real and it is going to happen very soon. Please take it to heart and prepare yourself for the second coming of Christ which will be partially be given to you through God to his servant Richard King.

You can take it to the bank because it is the word of God.

I am making it my mission in life to get Gods word and revelation and visions and apparitions out into the world, so that I can bear big fruit and be worthy to go into heaven because I fear that if I don't since much has been given to me, much is required. I want to face Jesus having done what He has told me to do.

When the following revelation happened to me I was in the midst of a very marvellous prayer life.

Any person called by God is automatically in the midst of the war. Many years later, after having a salvation through a prayer life, I began obeying God and disciplining myself to God's Word. In other words, living by the Word of God.

God showed this to me because He wanted me to see the battle as it really is so that I can decipher the tactics that I am going to take to win.

What happened was that I borrowed a Kool Cigarette from a guy in my four man cell. I told him that I would get a package of Kool Cigarettes from the canteen. So I did.

And, the first Kool Cigarette that came out of the pack said, "J.P." in the same light green coloring as 'KOOL'.

I said, "What does this mean?"

Apparition

An apparition is like a vision, except it moves. A vision stands still, but an apparition moves and is real. For example, in 1975 I was with a female friend walking up the hills of Hollywood. At the same exact time, my friend and I looked to the right and saw a Doberman pincher crouching and growling.

To the left were six angelic spirits about 2 and a half feet off the ground clothed in dazzling appearance of white. Immediately, my friend and I began running for the car because we were afraid of the dog. We got into the car and locked the doors and tried to discuss what we just saw.

It was 32 years later that I understood the meaning of the apparition. Namely, that we are in a huge war between good and evil, holy and unjust, and all that contrasts right and wrong. We are the ones between two spiritual parties.

I had the peace of Christ through Phil 4.8 where I prayed all the time. I prayed all my waking hours. There was a prayer on my mind at all times. When I was down, the Lord would prompt me to rejoice.

When I was anxious, the Lord would prompt me to pray the 'Hail Mary'. There was so much satisfaction and contentment in this prayer life that when I lost it due to sin, I couldn't settle on anything less than a perfect prayer life. I was searching for the Way, the Truth and the Life and all I could do to persevere in life and in my walk with God was to walk the walk and not merely talk the talk.

In other words 'live by the word of God'.

Yes, it took the Bible and various spiritual readings to bring me close enough to the Lord that I could have, close to, not exactly, but close to the satisfaction and contentment that I had in my prayer life for (like) five years. Remember, God allows wars because of sin....and I had my war. My war was in my mind with principalities and powers of darkness that nearly took my life through suicide and/or from someone else.

I am going to say that I am going to say that I have had a full healing which is confirmed by the department of VoC Rehab that said I had a 126 IQ and they would put me through College.

I know that I am healed because God has given me satisfaction and contentment to live in my own skin. I was afraid of my self to the point of suicide at one point and the Devil had me wrapped around his finger. He had more foot holds around me than Carter's got liver pills.

I had to be put on medication, but I am a better person for it.

left in the linen clothes as though it was there. At that very instant, my dog jumped off the bed and went into the living room.

I continued to worship with my eyes closed and when I finally opened my eyes, the Shroud of Turin was gone.

What God has shown me is that the corner stone of faith is the resurrection of Jesus. It is by His ascension that bring us victory. Because of what He left symbolized by the Shroud of Turin, we have freedom to love Him. Luke 17 comes to my mind.

It talks about the love that God has for His children and I know, beyond a shadow of doubt that He sent me this vision because I love Him.

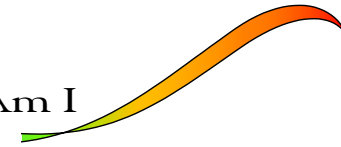

I was loving Him with my prayer and worship and He showed His love back to me. It was like we were passing love back and forth.

The fact of the matter is Father Golbi has been told through the blessed Mother to get together a cohort of priests numbering over 100,000 to move on the world at God's command in order to bring about various missions and callings to God's people in order to fulfill God's wishes which have to do with the second coming of Christ.

After I saw a heavenly vision of the blessed Mother in a picture of Mother Teresa and Princess Dianna I immediately went to my bed in my apartment and laid down praising and worshiping God in thankfulness for the vision I saw. As I did that my eyes opened and I looked at the ceiling and there was the Shroud of Turin. I saw the outline of the body of Jesus which was

Who Am I

I was in a mental hospital getting sound and sane and in a group of about 20 people. The counsellor asked me who I thought I was. She asked me about 17 times. I didn't know who I was. All I said to her question of, "Who do you think you are?"

I could only say, "A good person."

And, later on, about the 15th time she asked me I said, "A holy person."

Then, she asked me a couple times more and I had no response.

However, immediately after she was done asking the question, the Lord, in a small still voice told me, as crazy as it sounds, that I was, "A true witness."

To me the understanding of a true witness is to preach what God has given me and the information that I was given at the time she interrogated me; He validated it to be true.

I have wondered and searched for others with a heart of a true witness and found only a few. How I desire to be one of them. To have God mention this fact brought contentment and satisfaction to my heart. Still, I had no one to share this with that understood me at that time.

In the fourth month

In the fourth month 1980, I was laying on the yard meditating on praise and worship to God giving God all the glory, honour, praise and thanks for His awe inspiring works, when all of a sudden there was a spirit that was female that came over me.

It gently pressed a kiss on my lips and whispered on my ear that the Lord Jesus Christ was coming in the fourth month (April) of a very near year. Since the Bible says that we know not the day or the hour, I dismissed the revelation, until later on that night, just a few hours from the miracle I came across Channel 7 ABC TV news network that thousands of priests, rabbis, ministers, and high religious officials believed that they were told by God that the Lord Jesus Christ was coming in the fourth month of a very near year.

It went on to say that we know not the hour or the day in which Jesus is coming, but by the grace of God we know the month, which is April.

The Visionaries of Madjorgoree are saying that there will be a great miracle or either the third, fourth or the fifth month and I have reason to believe that they are talking about Jesus Christ, or Lord and God, coming back in the fourth month.

Like I said, thousands of high religious officials believe that they have had the same revelation.
