My Declaration on the Word of God

My Bible is the Word of God. Its words are a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. To brighten my journey through life. It clearly tells me that God has said that his people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. I do not want to continue in my ignorance, since God winked at ignorance in the past, but now expects me to repent and get knowledge, which bringeth wisdom and understanding.

I am to be a doer of the Word, and not only a hearer. I must, therefore, change my knowledge so I can change my thinking, since, as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he. I must change my thinking, so I can change my speaking. My Bible says Death and Life are in the power of my tongue, and I am snared by the words of my mouth. My words can help, hurt, hinder, or humiliate. My confessions will determine my actions, I must change my speaking so my actions can change.

The Word says, 'He that keepeth his mouth, keepeth his life.' Since the tongue is an unruly evil full of deadly poison. When I change my actions, I can change my habits since a soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up strife and a fool's mouth is his destruction I shall guide my mouth and not live and die like a fool.

Quotations from Bible verses are found in Psalm 119:105, Hosea 4:6, Acts 17:30, Proverbs 4:5, James 1:22, Proverbs 23:7, Proverbs 18:21, Proverbs 6:2, Proverbs 13:3, James 3:8, Proverbs 18:7
