

A Pack a fun with Alpaca Personalities Books.
This is one of the Red Ribbon Kids Books featured by Glorybound Kids.

Alpaca Shear Fear

This is the story of an Alpaca who is afraid to receive his first hair cut. The book is taken from a real alpaca ranch and includes photographs depicting the shearing process of the Peruvian Alpaca.

Glorybound Kids books sneak celery into the diet by putting peanut butter on it. What we offer is sweet moral fiber combined with educational learning.

Alpaca Personalities books feature an amazing family of Alpaca who are raised on a ranch in Arizona. The reader receives a pack-a-alpaca fiber with the purchase of each book to help him experience the fun for himself. You can look forward to being able to order the animated CD depicting the voices of the Alpaca featuring Norah deValara.

Breathing life into dreams

Purpose of Glory Bound Books

Glorybound Kids is attached to Glory Bound Books Ltd out of Las Vegas, Nevada. We are a business which was started by two sisters who put their talents together. Sheri Hauser is a writer and Karna Peck is an artist. Together they began publishing wonderful books with delightful messages and pictures.

The books are classical and seek to promote good moral behavior. Many of the books are translated into foreign languages and are released with music, CD's, and plays which can be performed by the kids.

Karna and Sheri are trying to put themselves out of a job by encouraging the kids to do art, stories and poetry on their own. They actively promote learning and share many books on-line free of charge through the web site www.fordreamers.com.

We have other artists and authors who have joined the 'family' bringing their art and stories which we are putting into song and music making DVDs as fast as we can. John Jones has been a wonderful help adding music and color to the stories.

Our distribution is to individuals through the web site, schools and book stores. Our books are like peanut butter in celery because they sneak healthy principles into the reading diet of children.

Alpaca Shear fear

This day, I say came some grey
Into the life of an alpaca.
Oh dread, oh drat
Fear this and that

Alpaca fibre to have and to hold
I've been told
Is soft as it can be So now that Rosy is sheared and put away what she feared
Thanks to her and the rest
They have given the very best
No less
And we can hold the fibre in our hand
Just as Stella Ardella planned.

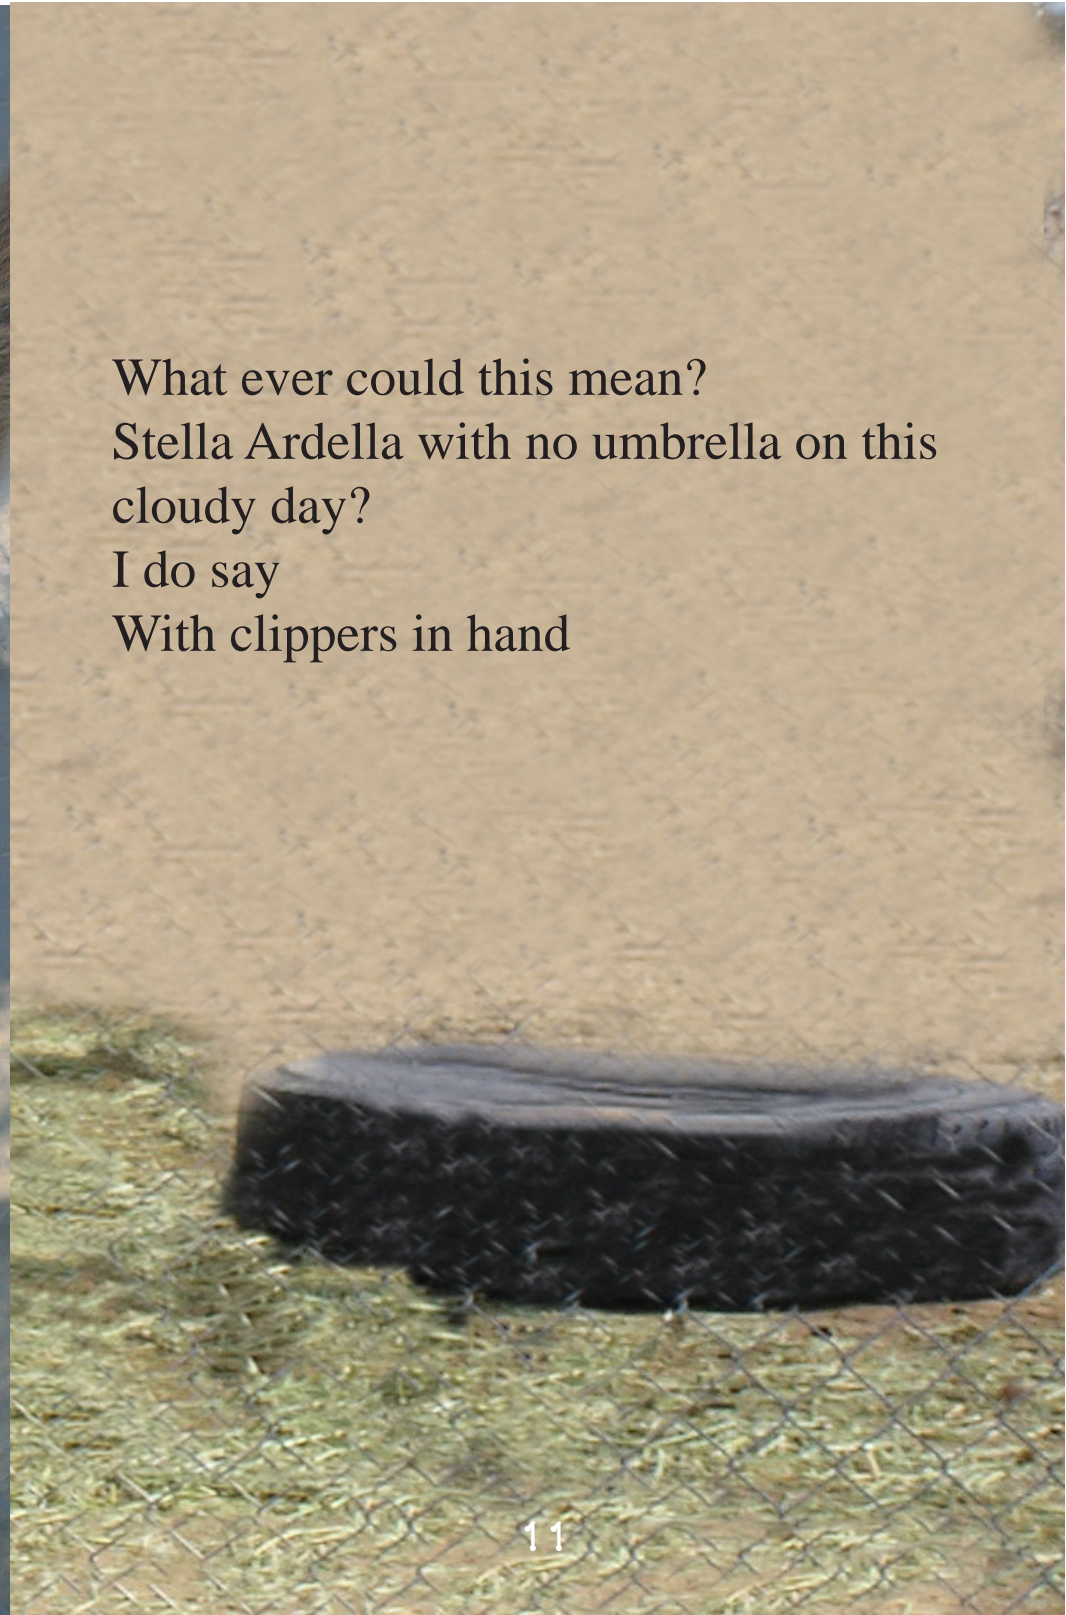

And, afterwards, she had fun smiling
the rest
Because they were next in line for shearing time.

What ever could this mean?
Stella Ardella with no umbrella on this cloudy day?
I do say
With clippers in hand

So without a hope they tethered me with a rope and tied me to a tree.

I believe this was planned to shear my locks today. Glorious fiber, with clumps of groomed mud and briars through and through
How could this be true?

But, to my dismay, I say came Stella Ardella today
With clippers in hand.
It had to be planned.

“I declare,” said Stella Ardella,
“That we’re here to sheer, not cause a fear.”

“Now, come dear Rosy with the little brown nosy
and stand real still.

Behave Rosy dear so we can fill our baskets today

Then you can kick up your heels and go into the field to play.”

As papa looked on and momma, too
My Alpaca dread grew and grew.

And tied me to a tree. Oh me.

What were we to do?
When a team showed up and they skipped our sup
