we take the threads of His wisdom and run through the place of His desire. We are like a runner with a string: we are threaded through His desires by His provision to the goal. Kapaseus is about being threaded like a string through a needle; from one place, through a tight place, to a spanning place where you are supposed to be. It is about leaning on His promises which will bring you through by your faith to achieve His miracles.}

9. Firefly This book is about dreams. It doesn't show how to interpret them, but how to get the words from them. Dreams are not meant to be 'silent movies'; they have words. The Holy Spirit (Fire of God) flies at night, just like fire flies in the East light up against the dark sky. Dreams are tremendous neon lights which have been given to us that can lead and prepare for the future. They warn of problems and help keep us on the road. (I know) People know that the Spirit flies in the daytime, but they are missing out when they fail to recognize that He moves at night as well. Firefly is soft bound full color from the front to the back with my sister's paintings. The price is $19.95.

10. Seed Packet This book shows how, when we become mature, like mature plants, we will produce seeds which will grow. We bloom, flower, then produce fruit. But, after that, we should bust the fruit apart and set the seeds to fly in the wind. It is about releasing the seeds of your ministry to fly without watching where they go; simply trusting in Him. And, are we willing to buy seed for others? This book cuts to the heart of service. The price is $19.95.

Spiritual books come from Spiritual authors.

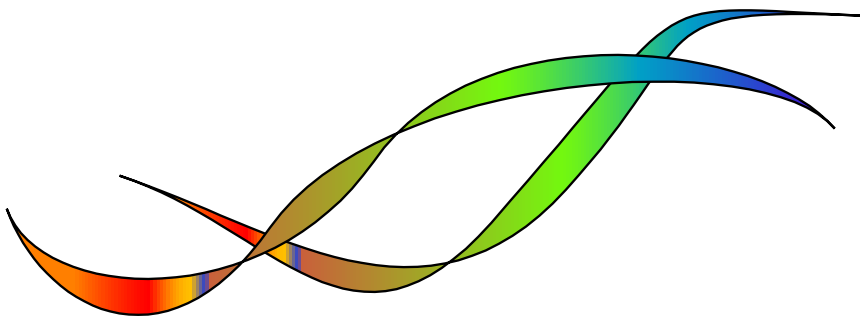

Glory Bound authors are all sent to me. I do not advertise and promote the publishing company in order to draw authors. Each one of them has come to me bringing a message which he or she feels needs to be shared.

I am proud to present our artists and authors. Each one of them has worked day and night for years in a careful attempt to be accurate in the way which he or she hears from the Spirit.

All of the authors are new and their words are fresh. Each one of them was 'tapped' on the shoulder by the Holy Spirit and given a message to share with others. The avenue which they chose to share it in is through words.

All of our artists are prophetic in their display of their representation of sharing God's love in through their gifts. When we bring the works together it is like a peacock fanning his tail: It is a proud display for any one to take notice of.

I Feel it is important to mention that the books which are shared by my authors are spiritual, not religious. It is not the purpose of Glorybound Publishing to cause the readers to go to a specific Church or religious organization. It is my purpose to help you to learn to listen to God's Spirit for yourself. Who knows, you might become my next writer!

results of the sins which we commit. (You know, if we rob a bank, we will go to jail.) Sinactía Empezia is on deliverance that comes from hearing the voice of God regarding sin. When we allow Him to point it out, then help us to get out of it, He will. Sinactia Empezia is 260 pages full color with art from my sister, Karna Peck's Art Gallery. The book is soft bound and the price is $19.95.

7. Festevía progresses the reader to the next level on the path. This dream mixes a couple of dreams at a time and shows how they can be interpreted several ways to get different messages. It weaves the dreams. When we figure out how to hear the voice of God, accept our calling and deal with sin (past, present and future), then we are ready to serve others. Feste-vía demonstrates how we are the gift which God has given to others. What He desires to share, He shares through the gifts of the Holy Spirit as our fingers reach out to others. When we are willing to be open with Him, then open with others, He can flow through us. This book is about enabling the flow of the Holy Spirit to move through to achieve the dreams of God. For, the spirit of might flows when we move into the intentions of God's plans, not our own. The book is 237 pages, soft bound. The cover is a painting by Ron Brown. The price is $19.95.

8. Kapaseus is a book about walking into the ministry of hearing the voice of God which leads us to miracles. When we learn which way God wants us to head, it is like of God: wisdom, knowledge, understanding, fear of the Lord, presence, counsel, and might which are given in Isaiah 11 and shows how the Holy Spirit wants to flow through us with this same Spirit giving direction. Miracules is soft bound with paintings of my sister, Karna, as well. The book is over 300 pages and full color from cover to cover. The price is $19.95.

5. Camezia Reptidad is a book that points out that because we are created in His image, we take after Him in many ways. We need to learn to copy His ways in relation to spiritual things. We live in the world, but seek to not live like carnal men. So, where do we learn the difference? The title says the message of the book. We are encouraged to be 'like God, our Father in Heaven'. The Holy Spirit is compared to seltzer water and we are the ones who add the color and serve others. We become poured out as a drink offering to others when we serve them with the Holy Spirit as our base and add the spiritual gifts that He has given to us. Camezia Reptidad is 218 pages, soft bound, full color with my sister's Art Gallery paintings. The price is $19.95.

6. Sinactia Empezla is a book on deliverance, God's way. Often when we try to move forward in doing that which we know God wants us to do, often, there are impediments to our progress. We are influenced by our past, present and future. Often, the sins of our parents roll out in front of us like a 'welcome mat' causing us to trip. This book demonstrates that we can overcome the sins that are rolling down hill on us as well as the

the author of

Tangents in Spiritual Growth
The Haggard Woman
Biography of a Poem
God's Way

Gloria A. Logan grew up in a poor family with five other kids raised in Mississippi. Her love of poetry stems from her childhood remembering how she wrote limerick poetry in grade school. As she grew up, she attempted to attend college pursuing a degree in Psychology, but had to drop out at the age of 18 after finding out that she was pregnant with her first child. Although she was brought up to be moral, she didn't become serious about her relationship with God until later on in life.

In addition to her writing, she maintains a full time job in an office working with home loans and insurance. Gloria has four children and six grandchildren, many of whom are also writers.

Presently, Gloria is active in her Church 'Living Faith Assembly'. The pastor and congregation call on her regularly to read the inspirational poetry which continues to pour out of her spirit and into little spiral bound notebooks which sit all over her house. She brings refreshment to the members with her writings which she freely shares.

Gloria teaches Sunday School, leads home Bible Study and is an active part of the prayer ministry of her Church body. She is one of the people that the ushers turn over new converts to when they come to the altar to receive prayer. Gloria considers prayer to be her full time job. Tangents in Spiritual Growth is her first book. This collection of writings has taken 6 years to come to maturation sharing her gift of encouragement, counsel and bringing the peaceful aspects of the presence of the Spirit of God into the room with her words. $19.67

Meet Lenni Nordloh
the author of
Ordinary People

If the ax is dull and he does not sharpen its edge, then he must exert more strength. Wisdom has the advantage of giving success. If the serpent bites before being charmed, there is no profit for the charmer. Ecclesiastes 10:10

Katisha is soft bound with 309 pages. It is also full color with 14 paintings from my sister's gallery. This book is priced at $19.95.

4. Miracle's is actually the first book which I wrote several years ago. After I wrote it, I gave it back to God as a love offering never to be printed. In essence, I laid it on the altar like a first born child and dedicated it back to Him. What He did was have me write a bunch more books, and then give me dreams to rewrite this book in a different way. The essence of the book is understanding the many colorful aspects of God's Holy Spirit through the interpretative aspects of the Spirit. Originally I used the Holy Bible to interpret the dreams for the basis of the book. But when I rewrote the book, I used references from five Holy Books {Interpretation of the Qur'aan, the Jewish testament, the Christian New Testament, the Book of Mormon, and the Catholic books of their Bible. The book is not religious, but spiritual pointing out that God cares about all who diligently seek Him and can be found at the end of His voice.

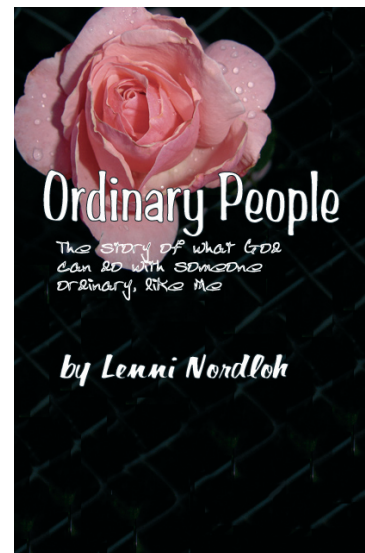

Our image of who God is directs our image of who we are according to Him. If we allow Him to show us who He is, then He will show us who we are. This book reviews the influences which we have telling us who we are and shows that we can learn to listen to the voice of God which will tell us who we are and who we should be. Miraculeś reviews the seven spirits and have our being. And, it's in His Word, not ours. He is the light. Soft bound 260 pages with 24 pieces of art from Karna Peck's Studio. These pieces are chosen because they demonstrate the prophetic aspect of her art. Again, this book is very colorful. Priced at $19.95.

3. Katisha { We are surrounded by many voices: our mind, our flesh, the world and demonic powers. This book shows how God will help us to differentiate between them and have victory in hearing His voice over others. It is a book on tactical spiritual warfare. It compares spiritual Kingdoms and shows how they are at battle and we live in the midst of the war. We can be passive, or active. When we are passive, then our enemies claim victory. }

Katisha has a name with the sound of a sneaky cat, or a sly shah. The book was given to me by God through dreams, revelation, Bible study and visions. It was written over 3 years. God gave me a dream that prompted the writing of katisha. In this dream there is a lot of beautiful birds released. Then, along came a cat that has been waiting to eat the birds once they have been released. The message is that we cannot release the birds unless they know about the cat. The Devil is the cat. Consequently, this book is a book about the wiles of the Devil. It exposes his tactics and uncovers how God will assist us to have victory over him. There is always victory when we are on the winning team. But, we must learn how to become part of the army in order to become part of the victory. We must use the tools that God has given us as well as His Holy Spirit's power to make our weapon sharp against the serpent. It is no good if he bites us before we are ready for battle. The Wisdom of God will be our strength.

Ordinary People

by Lenni Nordloh is a book about how God works through ordinary people every day as He seeks to further His Kingdom. Ordinary people are in all walks of life. Some seek personal attention and others prefer to live quietly in a world without notice. God seeks ordinary people who seek to know Jesus Christ more intimately. It is through the ordinary people of humanity that God brings about His miracle of choice to lift them up with a purpose.

You will be reading a message of hope through a woman that has experienced disappointments, encouragement, hope and love as she has experienced a growing relationship in the Lord Jesus Christ. She is ordinary, but she gives the message of hope in a world full of darkness.

She is a pastor's wife, a mother, a daughter and a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. Her desire in writing this book was to share her story so that you can begin a deeper walk with the Lord for yourself. A message was once given to her to never compare yourself with others, but to be the best that you can be hanging onto the spiritual shirttail of Jesus. To run your race in life furthering God's Kingdom with God's wisdom and prayers for other people around you. Her heart's desire for you is to experience Jesus Christ and what the Holy Spirit want to bless you to become in His mighty plan. 180 pages $19.67.

He is the Musical Composer of

Sharing Ole Lumpy Comes to Life

John Jones is a gifted pianist, guitarist, singer and producer who has had a passion for music since he was five years old growing up in Des Moines, Iowa.

The heart of his music flows from his spiritual life. John is part of the music ministry team at Oasis Christian Fellowship in Las Vegas. His love for God shines through the notes which he sings and plays.

When we finished Sharing Ole Lumpy Comes to life, he immediately stared on the Ole Lumpy Loved and Shared (Teacher's edition of the CD).

You can look for him to compose much of the music for the children's animated readings which are to come. He has a wonderful gift for being able to come up with a tune behind words. He will come out with a CD of his own soon, you can bet on it!

Love Notes I

Corianta Love Notes I There is a small book that goes along with corianta called Love Notes. It has short messages of God's love. Each page is designed to be given away, so they are serrated along the binding. 50 pages soft cover priced at $5.95.

2. Tomaseña {Follows the spirit of prophecy, which is hearing the voice of God, from the Old Testament, New Testament in the Bible, and on to today showing that God is speaking the same as He always has, we need to learn to listen. It reviews ways to 'clean your slate' so He can write on it in such a way that we will be able to figure out the message.} If you have wondered what prophecy is, this book is for you.

I have been given some of the answers that unravel the mystery around hearing the voice of God. Tucked within this book are helpful guides to interpreting your own dreams and visions by learning to take them into God's presence. Then, I take it a step further, challenging you to move into the gift of prophecy for yourself.

The book is strange. It is a 'show and tell' style book. The text comes from my dreams which I have brought into God's presence, asking Him what they mean. It is this material that forms the book. The dreams are given with interpretations from the Bible used as a reference.

I invite you to go to the other side of strange, come to the fount of God's love, dip your hand, and bless yourself. For, it is in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit we live, move

10 Stepping Stones to the Garden of God's Love

The image is that we move from the front of His house to the backyard where He waits for us. Along the side of the house are stepping stones which we walk on to get there. This is a group of ten books which lead around to the back of the house into the secret garden of God's love

1. Coríanta is an introduction to hearing the voice of God. This book declares that God has opened a window to heaven declaring an open house on understanding His voice in dreams and visions. What coríanta shows is that we can have a relationship with a living God, rather than a religion or a book. It is actually a manual for salvation with a foundation built on the love of God flowing from Him to you and you to Him. Coríanta declares that God desires a volley of love to go between us and Him, then steps further to demonstrate how this happens.

The title is 'tongues' and means 'heart song'. The message of the book is that when we sing the song which God put in our hearts (long ago) then we will sing His heart song and there will be a merging of our spirit with His. The book shows the difference between the words of God and the song of God. Each piece demonstrates a different flavor of the sweetness of God's heart, so I put a box of candy on the cover. The book is elegantly bound in a hard cover with string binding, 309 pages with 64 paintings from Karna Peck's Art Gallery. The book is colorful decorated on every page with splashes of color. Priced at $39.95.

Meet Edelgared Strunks
From Germany
She has her own set of Children's books called
Pantuffel Books

Her books include

Mama Buggy
Minka the Mouse
Moonflower
Setareh and the Nightingale

Edelgared Strunks was raised in Berlin, Germany. She came from an orphanage and was raised by adopted parents. Her real father was Russian and her mother was German. She met her husband, John in Manheim while he was serving in the Armed Forces. In 1959 she came to the United States. She is the mother of three children, 10 grandchildren and 2 great grand children. She has studied with the Berlin Opera singing for years. She is an oil painter and writes her own music.

Edelgared spent 4 years in a Russian Detention Camp in Czechoslovakia when she was 17 years old and became acquainted with Jehovah's Witnesses faith who gave her courage to make it through this difficult time. She is active in her faith to this day.

Throughout her writings she shares sturdy ethical principles of sharing, peace, justice and caring within families. Edelgared resides in Olympia, Washington with her family nearby. Edelgared's children's books can be found in the GBK Writer's Ink publication.

Meet Karna Peck, my sister

Karna and I are sisters who enjoy sharing our gifts and talents with the world. Karna has been doodling frogs since she was a child. One of her goals is to make art that makes others smile. I believe she does. You can visit a lot of her art on the web site for Glory Bound Books www.fordreamers.com. Karna's art provides the backdrop for every aspect of the web site. You can order copies of many of her paintings through her web site KarnaPeck.com.

Karna lives in Washington State with her husband, Dean. She has four children and a bunch of grandchildren. Karna has art all over the surrounding area of the community where she resides. She has murals, paintings and sculpture. One of my books called 'Dreamer' features a small child with the backdrop of an island. The pictures are actually photographs which I took of a Mexican restaurant where she did 10 murals on the walls. Then, I used the murals and inserted the 'actors' onto the backdrop of Karna's murals. When she brought me to the restaurant 'casually' to show me the wonderful artwork on the walls, I was impressed and wanted to share it with others who cannot visit the place.

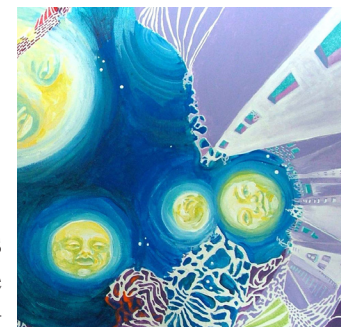

The Children's books are Karna's brainstorm. I began writing for children at her request because she has a heart to include the books into a program called 'Grandma Club' which encourages children to write to their grandparents while the grandparents share books with the children. Watch the program come alive!

The difference between Dreamatrix Immanuel and the other books is that I wrote it. With all of the other books, I was given dreams and instruction to do specific studies and meditations which filled in the pages. I wrote Dreamatrix Immanuel in two weeks. I just sat at the typewriter and wrote it. {Of course I only get up to go to the bathroom...I bring food to the typewriter.} 144 pages. The price is $19.95.

What is Prophetic Art?

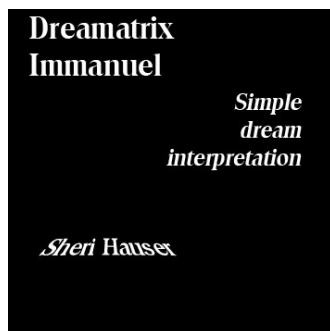

God is displayed in all creation.

When we pray, God answers us. When He does, often, we don't recognize it because it isn't in a form that we are looking for. We don't see the art as messages from God because we don't fathom His Love for us His constant desire to be in our life. He comes into our world in unusual ways.

This is how I see God trying to talk to us: He is big, after all he created the whole world including all the galaxies. Let's suppose he wants to get a message to us. Pretend you are big and have a family of ants that you want to get a message to. You would need to give them something that they could understand in their world. God has given us art to communicate. He has manifested Himself through pictures. Learn how to interpret the pictures and understand more of God. The price is $10.50.. The paintings are all from Karna's Gallery.

Nostalgic Wisdom is a tiny book with short sayings of wisdom. It is like fortune cookie messages. We will use them in the coffee shop stashed into cookies. But, you can have a copy of complete Nostalgic Wisdom for $3.00.

Dreamatrix Immanuel:

The title means ‘when we put the dream into the mold of God’s intention, He will be with us to make it come true’.

If you look at the words, matrix means ‘mold’ like a baby is formed in a womb; a mold. The very word ‘dream’ walks into the word for ‘mold’: It is put into the womb so it can grow to become birthed. God desires to birth His dreams within us. The dreams are like seeds a man plants into a woman: they are implanted deep within and grow up until they mature and reach the place where they move through the birth canal to breath on their own.

Many dreams are prophetic in that they come as ‘seed’ in our spirit shown on the screen of our mind. When we take the time to interpret them, and learn their meaning, we can begin to walk into them; at that point the dream moves through the birth canal and begins to breath on its own. The baby is born. We birth God’s intentions because they were His dreams.

The word Immanuel means ‘God with us’. It means that the Holy Spirit has come to dwell and empower. He gives the vision, and then empowers it. When we tuck the dream into the matrix ‘the womb of mother wisdom’ and add ‘God is with us’ to the equation, then the dream moves under the power of God. And, the word sounds just like ‘manual’ which is what the book is: a manual which helps one to take their dream, understand it by the power of the Holy Spirit and walk into it by the grace of God.

Meet Ron Brown

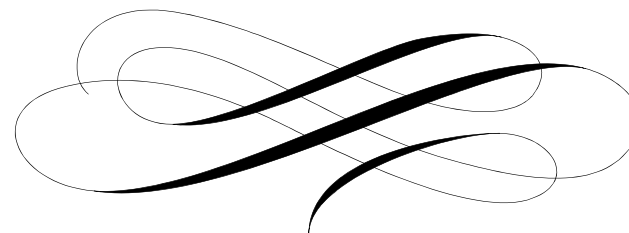

The artist who painted the cover of Festevia

Ron Brown is the executive director of Habakkuk Studios, a company committed to releasing movies dedicated to sharing the spiritual aspects of God’s nature. He is a gifted artist and a wonderful friend of mine (Sheri).

I have known Ron Brown for several years. He is a dedicated man of God who knows the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit like many have never known. He spent many years ‘down and out’ and has ministered all the while to many on the streets in the inner city. I can truly say that he is a man who is not afraid of anything because he has seen God move clouds when he needed a little shade on a hot day.

Ron has a collection of wonderful paintings which you can find in the fordreamers art gallery. Look for the release of his motion picture soon.

Let me not forget to mention that Ron Brown was the voice of the Beavers in our first animated reading of Sharing Ole Lumpy Comes to Life. He is the one who added the true southern flair. The rest of us were just trying to copy him.

Sheri Hauser grew up in Seattle, Washington the third child of a family of four. Her childhood was very disruptive because her mother kept looking for the perfect husband, the perfect place to live and the gold at the end of the rainbow. The main support of the family came from a hair dresser's salary which her mother faithfully brought home every night. She was raised

There are three pieces: Window of Opportunity for Salvation, Vacuum Cleaner Salesman, and Salvation. All of the written pieces have amazing shapes of wine glasses. Each one is as individual as the words contained within. This book in its entirety is a piece of art. The price is $10.50

Dove Dreams Fly is the story of how Glory Bound Books was grown as a business through following dreams. The book is written chronologically with dates.

I give the dream, then explain how I interpreted it for myself, then tell how I followed the dream to it's outcome. I show how God led me to publish the books and grow the business over a period of three years.

It is a personal book that includes a lot of information that I never meant to print. I was instructed to finish this book before I released any books. You will see how much faith it took for me to grow Glory Bound Books on a wing and a prayer. >190 pages art by Karna. The price is $19.95.

Spanning bridge #5 Demonic Warfare bridge:

Abreas Ansus is a 30 page booklet made to fit in a 5X7 envelope so it can be mailed easily. It is Spanish and English combined.

The book features a hand painted on tile acrylic painting on every opposite page throughout. The name depicts a field of white daisies out a window.

Vacuum Cleaner Salesman is a piece that came to me as a dream and I got up and began to type it into the computer. As I did, the dream continued to come. I completed the typing in about 45 min very poor sleeping on a mattress on the floor with her clothes in a box most of the time. Her first new dress was bought for her on her graduation from High School.

Still, through all this moving (of which she was in 14 schools during her childhood years) she never thought she was poor because the family was kept full of love by her mother and grandparents. To this day she remembers her grandparents phone number they had when she was 7 years old.

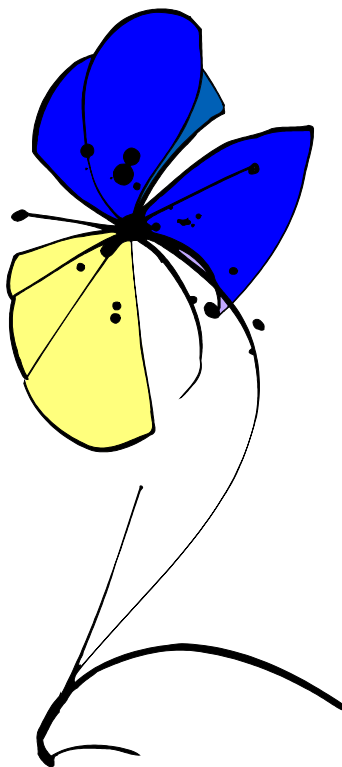

Sheri had a propensity to write since she was young, although she never did any of her own. In High School she was the editor of the Quill, the School Newspaper.

Getting married at 20 years old to her high School sweet heart, she went to nursing school and on to raise two lovely girls, Joy and Stephanie. Presently, they are both in college locally. Sheri lives in Las Vegas with her husband, Paul, who works as a corporate pilot. In addition to writing, she works full-time as a critical care nurse at a 'Heart Hospital'.

Most of the books which she writes are decorated with art from her sister, Karna Peck's Art Gallery. The venture of writing children's books came from Karna. She has a love for teaching children fine arts.

After paying to have her first book, Coríanta, printed, Sheri went on to learn software and business principles in order to publish the rest of the books herself. Then, she opened up the company to others.

She moved into music and animation about six months ago joining with John Jones producing a CD. All of her books and the direction for the company come from dreams and listening to the quiet voice of God. She prays a lot.

Sheri Hauser's House of Prayer Books

My Books are unique in that they are written from dreams and are connected to one another.

The primary connecting thread is interactive prayer with God. We all desire for our prayers to be answered. The power to answer prayer is in God's hands. What if we asked Him what He wants, then requested His desire? What we would be doing is praying into God's will rather than guessing and hoping for the outcome. We would have surety of the answer.

This is precisely what I have done when I published all of my own books and grew a company; I asked God for His desires, then prayed into them. And He made them to happen because, after all, He's God. That is when miracles happen.

Let me give you some insight into the degree of miracle He has done through me: in 2001 I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. After that, I would spend several hours a week in the desert praying and seeking the presence of God's glory. I began to have dreams and visions which could be related to specific Scriptures in the Bible. What I recognized was that I was actually receiving coded messages which were the answer to my prayers for guidance to find the presence of God and experience His true glory. I took the dreams and visions back to Him in prayer asking for the answers, then I filled in the blanks to the questions which I had asked in the first place. It was never my intention to write books related to the subject of prayer. What happened is that, because I copied the dreams at night and they were messy to read, I began to transcribe them into the computer. And, after about a year of doing this, I was given a dream with clear

20. I want to link to your web site.

What do I need to do to be able to link to what you have going on? Here is the dream: Others may not take me seriously, but I believe there is a famine for hearing the words of God and, I have put everything into it to feed others. Some think me to be out of order. Even I feel that I have been clumsy, as I have stumbled through the process of learning how to distribute food to the poor. But, in the final hour they won't feel that way because, then, I will be the one who holds her purse. For, I have left my identity, my purpose, my desires, and my money behind only to receive them back when I need them. As others have clung to theirs before, they find that, when pressed, they forget them. But, I left mine a long time ago into the hands of God, so He is free to return what ever I need, when ever I need it. And, now we go to the observation area. It is here that we will survey the action of His plan. For, today He hands me the provision for the trip, and others look to me. Surely, I will take care of them because they have none. The ones with me have saved the universal key. I am sure it is the key of the love of God.

Coríanta (An introduction to dreams and visions.)

direction to put the collection of dreams with their instructional interpretations into a book.

After prayer and fasting, one book was put together. That first book was called Miracle's. The title was given to me in the form of a spirit language called 'tongues'. The interpretation of the title was also given to me. What the word says if you pronounce it slowly is 'mirror accolades'. What it means is that when we allow God to show us who He really is, then He will also show us who we really are. Only then will we see how we are to glorify Him; then we will be honored like a knight receives an honor from a Queen. As we kneel before the presence of who He is as He shows it to us and embrace that vision He will put a sword to our shoulder and declare us to be an honored part of His Kingdom. Then, we will fulfill the name 'Miracle's' because we will, by His power working through our lives, become walking, breathing miracles.

After more fasting, this book was divided into four books. It has become like bread in a basket for me in that, each time I reach my hand to share with others, more bread is produced. So, in essence, I only have been given one book, but by being willing to share, it has multiplied to feed many. The books are on different subjects all related to the same topic. I trust you will find the answer to your questions, not in my books, but as my books teach you to ask the right questions and listen for the answer in a way that you can understand enough to pray it in for yourself. Then, you too, will receive your miracle's.

3 types of bridges related to my books

All of them exercise your faith trusting God to bring you across a span of river, just like crossing the Jordan, to a place of understanding His voice on a specific subject. My books are not 'how to' books in that they don't give answers. What they do is show you how to ask questions to God...then He will answer. They show you how to listen for the response and reach out to grasp it in such a way that it will no longer continue to be elusive. In case you haven't figured it out yet, they are all on responsive prayer.

1. Book bridges span the length of a book The book bridges are writings which bridge the gap of understanding between where you are and where you need to be to see things from God's perspective.

2. Spanning bridges cross over using four books Spanning bridges cross over a bigger body of water. These bridges are not built yet. They bridge your understanding on a subject. The books are grouped according to subject. Some of the books are printed, some are finished, but not printed, and some are not completed yet. It is like an unfinished bridge.

When you begin to cross a spanning bridge you exercise greater faith because you are trusting that God will continue to speak to me giving me the rest of the information needed to complete the bridge. All of the bridges go to the same place in that they bridge the gap between where you are and where God's perspective is on the specific subject. They simply cross the river in different places.

3. Answers to questions: Often times we know where we want to go, but aren't sure which roads will lead there. This section is called 20 Questions. It responds to the questions which are answered when one crosses over the bridges. This section correlates the bridges with questions.

The books lead to somewhere

They are like bridges across several areas to hearing the voice of God. And they are like doors in that when they are read, the individual is able to walk through that area of understanding to get to a place. Within each topic there is a key in your hand that will enable you to get there. Below I have interpreted the titles and shown where they lead and the key that you need to use to be able to get there on your own.

Abreas Ansus

The title means: Looking out the window to a field of tiny white flowers. Interpreted: God has opened the window to hearing His voice. He longs to share His fragrance with us. God has opened His heart to us, we need to open ours for the relationship to happen. The key to Abreas Ansus is repentance and the door leads you into the House of God.

Adoration and Reverence

The title means what it says: When we combine adoration with reverence for God, we will find true worship of our creator. The key to Adoration and Reverence is a humble spirit willing to bow down to God and the door leads you to learning to dwell in His presence.

Camezia Reptidad

The title means: Repeat after dad: be like seltzer water. When we are filled with the Holy Spirit, He becomes in us a well of water that flows from the bottom of our heart. He is like 'seltzer water' in that the water is alive and full of air. He gives inspiration and life when He indwells us. And, when we serve others while being in dwelt with His presence, we simply add our own coloring to the drink. We take after our dad in serving others, yet we add the special gifts which He has imparted to us. The book is about the flow of the bubbly water within us that is to be presented to others. The key to Camezia Reptidad is learning to take good notes from your father and where the door leads is to a life of service which brings Him honor. Here are some bridges which are groupings of books on the same subject. Some of the books are printed, but others are not printed.

The Books are like a bridge in that the end of the bridge isn't built yet, but will be. You may launch out in faith with me, trusting God to build this bridge to understanding how His voice comes to us.

Chalisha

The title means: chalice We are meant to be a container that is to be filled with the good things of God. Yet, we have other things in our container and there is a competition within us brewing that causes us to be at war within ourselves. The key to Chalisha is to bring every thought into His scrutiny; pray about everything. And the place the door leads is to being as full as you can get with the Holy Spirit. There will be less of that which drags you down and more of that which lifts you up.

Coríanta

The title means: Heart song. Interpreted: When our heart sings the song it was intended to sing, we will sing God's heart song because we are all made in His image. There is a little God in all of us, so we should recognize aspects of Him in others when they are singing His song. Our heart was made to sing, but we have allowed other things to drown out the tunes. It is time to lift the darkness from our heart and allow it to sing. We have notes, like love notes that we can send to heaven when we fulfill our intended purpose of bringing honor to God. The key to coríanta is letting Him pick the tune your life plays and the door leads to a place where you will play the tune that your heart was meant to play. Like an instrument, you will do what you were meant for.

Coríanta Love Notes I, II, III

The title means that God has left us little remembrances of His love for us in the form of music. The love notes that He leaves for us are throughout creation: it sings of Him. The key to coríanta Love Notes is to be alert to the small things sent to you by God and the door leads to seeing things that are small having amazing riches. You will learn what it is to be rich in wisdom which is no small thing.

Dreamatrix Encore

The title means that when we put dreams into the context which they are intended, God will be glorified again and again. And, if we

Do you wonder if your forefathers are speaking to you from the applaud what He has shown to us, then He will make another appearance. He will come to the stage and demonstrate the 'play act' again and again as we cheer Him on. The key to Dreamatrix Encore is having a hunger for the things of God and the door leads to greater spiritual understanding of your dreams and visions as words from God.

Festevia

The title means: there is a festival brewing when we join with others who have the life flowing within. It is a festival of life through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit when we share what God has given in the form of spiritual gifts with others. The key to Festevia is being willing to share the way God intended and the door leads to growth in the Kingdom of God the way He intends, not the way we intend.

Firefly

The title means that the fire of God flies at night. Dreams bug us, yet light places of darkness. They fly into our mind giving light to the things of God. The key to firefly is discipline to write down the dreams when ever they come and bring them back for interpretation to God and the door leads to understanding the words of the dream, not only the pictures. You loose the pictures and take the message. It is like taking the present out of the box. Why keep the box after you have the present?

Holy Hum

The title means: The power of God hums. Interpretation: There is a hum in the universe. Even when we are quiet, we can still hear a small hum. This is the power of God bringing life to the place where we live. And, if God is a personal being, then, just like someone who is humming, if we get closer to Him, we will be able to hear the tune He is whispering under His breath. And, if we get, even closer, perhaps we will be able to hear the words that He is humming. Perhaps. The key to Holy Hum is to learn to listen for God's voice and the door leads to hearing it.

Kapaseus

The title means: to be threaded through a needle. When we follow the way of God's intention, He threads us through difficult places to where we need to be. When we are willing to become the thread which connects difficult things together, others will see a weaving; a tapestry of God. Our life will become an adornment for the house of God. The key to Kapaseus is following the words of God closely with discipline while not being comfortable and the door leads to the place of His choosing, not ours. He brings us out from our comfort zone into another zone where we are also not comfortable. It is to teach us to depend on Him. We are threaded through His intention to His purposes by His provision.

Katísha

The title means: catty Shah or the sly Devil. Interpretation: The Devil is a sly one who, like a lion is sneaking in tearing up our lives. By his trickery, he has usurped the throne of God intended purposes. His true motives are to kill, steal and destroy. When he is exposed, he runs from the light. Guess what? God has given us light into Satan's intended purposes so we can expose them and have victory in this spiritual war. The key to katísha is to become aware of the tactics of Satan and the door leads to victory over demonic forces.

Mé Mesa

The title means: My plate Interpretation: The title is not Spanish, but tongues. What it means is that God writes on the tables or the plates of our heart with His inscriptions. He gives and we receive from His hand. He is the one who feeds us. All we have is an empty plate. We come to Him spiritually thirsty, and hungry, and He is the one who provides. When we learn to present Him with an empty plate, then He will put onto it all that is good. As we purify our hearts, then they will become ready to receive what He distributes: food to the poor in spirit. The key to Me Mesa is to present yourself as a living sacrifice to God: to lay on the altar and let Him do whatever He wants with your life and the door leads to an anointing; He gives you a job. You see, you have to quit your old job before you have time to do another one. He can't supply hands that are not empty. We let go of our own ideas before we can grasp His.

Miracules

The title means that when we reflect on what God has intended for us to reflect upon, then we will become His reflection: we will be His accolade. Like a knight in a kingdom, we enter into service as we bow to His authority within the Kingdom of God and are christened with the sword of His Spirit. The goal is to build our life reflecting

It is a miracle of learning to reflect on the things of God and inheriting His ideas. Then, we will bring honor to Him and His kingdom. The key to Miracules is reflecting on His ideas and the door leads to becoming a reflection of His ideas.

Palagra

The title means truth; black and white. There is black and white in word and print. We have a responsibility to share truth; black and white. The key to Palagra is accepting no less than the truth and the door leads to discernment of true vs. Truth.

Prophetic Art

The title means that God's character is shared in creation: His words flow through art. These may be words for today or tomorrow. The voice of God is alive in art. The key to Prophetic Art is looking at nature using your spiritual side and the door leads to knowing God through His creation. He has many colors to His personality and can talk through all of creation if we give Him opportunity.

Seed Packet

The title means we each contain seeds that have the potential to birth Godly things. We are not given full grown plants, but God plants the seeds deep within our hearts which can be planted in His soil and grown to His expectation. If we desire to grow fruit within the Kingdom of God, we need to learn to nurture the spiritual seeds that exist within our spirit. The key to seed packet is to realize that the seeds of the our growth are already there, we just need to allow them to become fed and watered by the Holy Spirit and the door leads to growing the Kingdom of God.

Sinactia Empezía

The title means that when we sin, the consequences of it roll out in front of us causing us to trip. When our parents sin, their sin also rolls out in front of us like a speed bump slowing us down as we move into the lot that God has planned for us. The results of our sin and the sins of others impeded our progress. The keys of Sinactia Empezia are being willing to dig into your life, present and past and allow God to forgive sin. The door leads to freedom of the bondage of sin and its repercussions.

Tomaseña

The title means: Tomas in you. Interpretation: We need to learn to move from doubt to faith. As we listen to the whisper of the voice of God, and trust that it is Him who is speaking, then He will connect with us. It is by faith that we reach out to God. The connection happens mid air as His hand touches ours. But, we are impeded by our lack of faith; doubt. We doubt that who we hear is God. We are worried that it is our own head speaking to us, or the enemies in our lives instead of our Lord. We allow doubt to get in our way. We all have some Tomas in us (we doubt), but just like Tomas who placed his hand into the sword wound on the side of Jesus, He is reaching out to help us trust in His resurrection. The key to Tomasena is a hunger to hear the voice of God and the door leads to knowing it's God talking when you hear His voice.

Wedding Service

The title means that when there is a marriage of ideas; our ideas with the ideas of God, we will do His service, not our own. There needs to be a merging of our spirit with His and cohabitation, or an indwelling and getting to know one another for us to be able to work together unified with God. The key to Wedding Service is the desire to be filled with the Holy Spirit and the door leads to a walk that demonstrates this unification to others.
