

Share in our Party!

Sharing is Fun
at our pad.

Sharing Ole Lumpy Birthday Banner is part of the Sharing Ole Lumpy products distributed by GBK with the specific reason to teach children that they can have fun on their birthday sharing with others. The banner is meant to go with the Sharing Ole Lumpy Party Packages which include books, CDs, frogs, maracas, kiddie tattoos, stickers and fabric animal hats.

Sharing Ole Lumpy is a book written by Sheri Hauser with art by Karna Peck and animated CD with music written by John Jones. The book is like celery with peanut butter in that it provides moral fiber into the diet without noticing because it is sweet. Soaker and Joker are a sister and brother frog who have a special log that they love to sit on daily. Their little brother comes along and wants a place on the log. They can't seem to find a place for him, so they send him on home. A storm comes and overturns the whole situation.

The CD is a 17 minute musical play which makes the book come to life. It has script which is not in the book and the frogs hop to life and begin talking to the beavers. The voices are delightful and help to add character to the script.

In addition, the Sharing Ole Lumpy book is offered as a Classroom project where the children are given the script and the CD without the words so they can do the play. It integrates learning to work together with sharing in such a way that they learn to share the play with their families while their class has a money making opportunity. The package comes with tickets to sell for their play and when they sell the tickets it pays for the whole project. What a lovely way to share for all!
