

Section 7. The Association, acting through its Board of Directors, may negotiate on behalf of all co-owners for any taking of common elements, and any negotiated settlement approved by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the co-owners based upon assigned voting rights shall be binding on all co-owners.

Section 8. A co-owner who desires to make a repair or structural modification of his or her condominium unit shall first obtain written consent from the Association. The Association shall not give its consent if such repair or modification might jeopardize or impair the structural soundness, safety, utility, or harmonious appearance of the condominium project.

Section 9. Any person designated by the Association shall have access to each condominium unit as necessary during reasonable hours and upon notice to the occupant thereof for maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the common elements therein or accessible therefrom, and shall have access to each condominium unit without notice for making emergency repairs necessary to prevent damage to other condominium units or the common elements, or both.

ARTICLE VI.

RESTRICTIONS

(a) No condominium unit shall be used for other than single-family residential purposes (except that persons not of the same immediate family residing together may occupy a unit with the written consent of the Board of Directors, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld). A family shall mean one person or a group of two or more persons related by bonds of consanguinity, marriage or legal adoption, or as otherwise defined by the City of Milan Zoning Ordinance. Upon written request, the Association may permit reasonable exceptions to the restriction imposed by this section.

(b) No more than four (4) persons may continuously occupy any unit described as a two-bedroom unit in the Master Deed. Continuous occupancy shall mean occupancy for more than thirty (30) nights in any calendar year.

Section 2.

(a) A co-owner, including the Developer, desiring to rent or lease a condominium unit for a period of longer than 30 consecutive days shall disclose that fact in writing to the Association at least 10 days before presenting a lease form to a potential lessee, and at the same time shall supply the Association with a copy of the exact lease form for its review for compliance with the Condominium documents. The Developer proposing to rent
