VERBAL OFFENSES

RULES 12-3-6, 12-3-7

Rules 12-3-6 was added to include verbal offenses as IDFK.

This gives officials more flexibility when disciplining verbal offenses: they are now considered fouls at a minimum and may rise to the level of misconduct depending on the circumstances.

Rule 12-3-7 Address if the game is stopped for misconduct and no other restart takes precedence; then it will restart with IDFK.

DOGSO EJECTIONS

Revisions clarify and simplify language surrounding Denying an Obvious Goal-Scoring Opportunity (DOGSO) ejections.

2026-27 NFHS Soccer Points of Emphasis

Post World Cup Season

- Following a Men's World Cup, High School and NCAA, typically see up to a 38% increase in yellow cards and red cards as compared to the previous season
- Reason...players, coaches and fans believe that what they saw in world cup is fair game for high school.

SHARED PROFESSIONALISM AND BENCH ACCOUNTABILITY

- High school soccer serves as an extension of the classroom, requiring both officials and coaches to uphold the highest standards of composure and integrity.
- Professional communication should remain non-threatening and conversational. Raising one's voice, displaying frustrations or acting in a provocative manner only escalates conflict.

MANAGING GOAL CELEBRATIONS

- The line between allowable celebration and misconduct is crossed when a player or team prevents a timely restart by delaying excessively or by taunting opponents or fans.
- Examples of misconduct include jumping over barriers, climbing fences, or removing one's jersey. Any act that prohibits a timely restart is unsporting conduct and requires a caution.

High School this Is 12 Yellow Cards

- Yellow card to each non-player entering the field to participate in celebration.
- Yellow card to coach for not controlling the players on the bench.

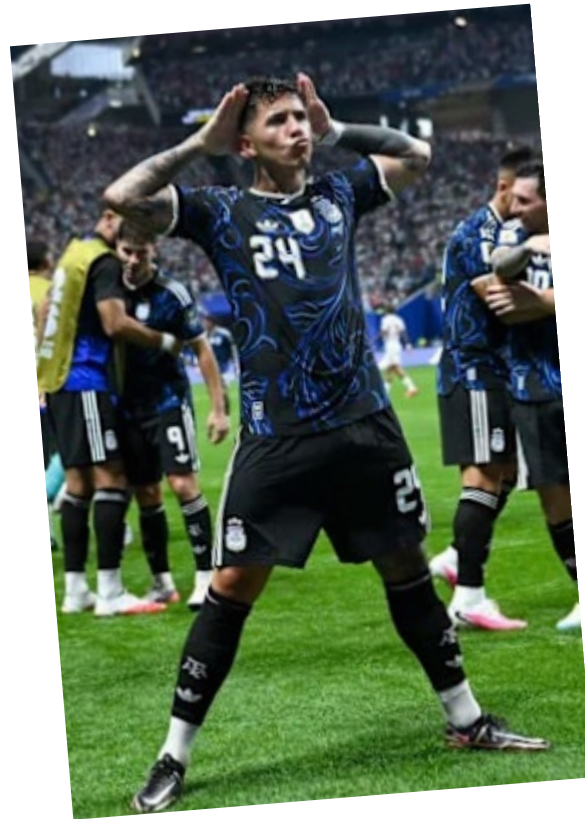

High School these are all Yellow Cards

Keep an eye on one another...look for signs of Heat Fatigue
