

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

Witnesses to the glory of God in the face of Jesus reflect that glory in the world. It was true for Moses. It was doubtless true for Peter, James, and John. We pray that it will be true of all of us who see God's glory in the word and in the supper and who are being "transformed into the same image" by God's Spirit. Today is the final Sunday of the Epiphany season.

WELCOME TO OUR PULPIT

We welcome Tony Lippard, a member of our congregation, to our pulpit today. Tony is a native of Salisbury and a former member of St. John's. He graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne University as a Christian Education major. He is the circulation manager at the Salisbury campus of Rowan-Cabarrus Community College. Last year, Tony began his studies in the NC Synod Advanced Ministries program which includes lay preaching and Synod Authorized Ministers. He is concentrating on the lay preaching which will help fill pulpits where there are no pastors or fill in for pastors on vacation but the church cannot obtain a supply pastor especially when there is a decrease of pastors as Pastor Futterer pointed out last Sunday. Today's sermon is a required part of Tony's curriculum...we are grateful for your support of Tony today...and this program of our North Carolina Synod.
