

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

A woman finds healing by touching Jesus' cloak, and a girl is restored to life when he takes her by the hand. In both cases a boundary is crossed: in Jesus' time the hemorrhaging woman was considered ritually unclean, polluting others by her touch, and anyone who touched a corpse also became unclean. In Mark's gospel Jesus breaks down barriers, from his first meal at a tax collector's house to his last breath on the cross as the temple curtain is torn in two. We dare to touch Jesus in our "uncleanness" and to live as a community that defines no one as an outsider.

FLOWERS

The flowers today are given by Amy Black to the Glory of God and in memory of her grandmother, Anna Mae Estep.

WE WELCOME MICHELLE EFIRD as our guest musician today. Michelle has played for us before - she is a native of Mt. Pleasant, a graduate of the music program at Pfeiffer University, and was an organist/choir director at First Lutheran Church in Albemarle with Pastor John before her retirement. We are so very pleased to have her with us today.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Earlene Snipes - Hospice Care at Big Elm Retirement Center.
Mary Dorton - Atrium Stanley

Many of you will be traveling over this summer. Please do remember that your church NEVER goes on Vacation – Sunday School and Faith Formation will continue throughout the Summer months, and our worship schedule does not change. Your presence when you are in town is so very special to us during these months, and your gifts for the church in this time of lower attendance will be most appreciated as well. Please remember that we have a number of fellowship and camping events in Summer – so please do read your bulletins and newsletters carefully to stay up to date on Summer activities. I wish you a happy, restful time of re-creation during these “quieter times”...and hope that the beauty of God’s creation inspires and revives you.

Peace, Power, and Love...Pastor John

Please note: The Offering Plates are located in the narthex, at the entrance to the sanctuary for your convenience. Or you may give online - please contact the church office if you have any questions about online giving. Thank you!

ELECTRONIC GIVING OPTIONS

Kimball provides a number of different options for our congregation to electronically present their offerings to the church.

BILL PAY – Most banks today offer a bill payment service with recurring feature. Individuals can set up their offering as a bill, and a check will be issued from that account and mailed to Kimball.

TITHE.LY (through kimballchurch.org) – By going to our church website, individuals can present offerings through an electronic service provided by Tithe.ly. The offerings can be set up as a one-time event or as recurring. There is a charge for this service and the individual has the option of paying the charge, or the amount will be deducted from the offering when sent to Kimball. If you would like any more information about any of these options, or assistance in getting one of the options set up, please contact any member of the finance team, or the church office.
