

SLV FAIR SALE RULES & REGULATIONS

See specific species regulations for additional sale rules or qualifications.

1. Only 4-H/FFA market livestock projects successfully exhibited and placed at the SLV Fair are eligible for the SLV Fair Junior Market Livestock Sale.
2. All Grand and Reserve Champion Market Beef, Swine, Sheep and Goats must sell. This also applies to exhibitors who have more than one Grand or Reserve Champion animal.
3. An exhibitor may sell only one animal (with the above exception), but may choose which species to sell if more than one species is shown.
4. Exhibitors MUST complete a sale designation form for each sale animal. Completed Sale Designation Forms and photo release forms must be turned in to the SLV Fair Office by 9:00 pm/or 1 hour after the end of the last market show (whichever is later).
5. The exhibitor is liable and will stand the loss without any recourse against the San Luis Valley Fair, if any drug residue is found rendering the carcass of any market animal unusable, as determined by an inspection officer at the packing plant.
6. Order of the 2025 SLV Fair Junior Market Livestock Sale:
 - Poultry and Rabbits, Swine, Beef, Sheep, Goats
 - All Champions, then All Reserve Champions.
 - Herdsman Award winners, then Born & Raised champions
 - Sale will consist of 1/3 of each species on rotation.
7. Each SLV Junior Market Livestock Sale animal will be charged 3% of the purchase price, proceeds going to the SLV Fair Board. Sale photographs will be charged, and the buyer 4-H Dinner tickets will be charged at cost.
8. THE SALE ORDER WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED. ONLY EXHIBITORS & ANIMALS PRESENT IN SALE ORDER WILL SELL.
