

The UCC and Sri Lanka

The Church of the American Ceylon Mission (CACM) has roots in the work of early missionaries in the Jaffna peninsula of Sri Lanka from 1813 onward. These were missionaries sent by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions (ABCFM), the predecessor body of UCC mission that celebrates over 200 years of global mission, and a predecessor body of today's Global Ministries.

The early congregational church of the Jaffna peninsula joined the church union movement in 1947 and became the Jaffna Diocese of the Church of South India. Since 2006 the CACM has been separate from the Jaffna Diocese of the Church of South India (JDCSI). CACM maintains its long-standing partnership with Global Ministries.

CACM strives to provide educational, medical, and social services throughout Sri Lanka. They seek to provide educational opportunities to children and youth in impoverished communities to help them escape the cycle of poverty. They provide these services through early child care programs, after school programs, and vocational training, and special programs for children and youth. CACM also has a special project for the victims of civil war in the Wanni region.

Prayer of Dedication– unison

O Way-Making God,

You are the source of every mercy and every new beginning, we give thanks for the gifts gathered here and for the hope you are stirring among us. As you lift burdens from weary shoulders and open paths we could not see before, shape these offerings into acts of healing, deeds of justice, and lives of shared joy.

Bless the giving and the givers, that generosity may widen your way and strengthen the communities we touch.

With gratitude for all you are doing in us and through us, we dedicate these gifts to the work of compassion you entrust to our care.

Amen.

People who have walked under heavy burdens have been met by the One who lifts them.
 People who have carried what felt unshakeable have felt the yoke break from their shoulders.
 Into every place of strain or sorrow,
 God's mercy draws near.
 God's compassion reaches out.
 God's grace opens a way forward.
 In this promise, receive your freedom.
 In this grace, begin again.
 Amen.

Responsive Welcome Statement

At St. John's United Church of Christ, we are Living Outwardly & Valuing Everyone!

We live and work amid God's love!

In that spirit, we extend love to all who come into our midst, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, nationality, skin color, culture, differing abilities, age or political affiliations, to participate fully in all aspects of church.

Our ministry is to bring the Good News of Christ's love to all.

We work in God's name to tear down walls and build community,

to walk with each other through all of life's circumstances,

to provide for those in need,

to offer comfort to the hurting and the sick,
 and to uplift the brokenhearted.

Where we fail, we ask for God's forgiveness.

May the Holy Spirit and our siblings continue to challenge us to do better.

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here!

Call to Worship— Responsively

Come, people of God—the dawn is breaking!

A new day rises where sorrow had settled in.

The dawn is breaking—and we rise with it.

Where burdens have bent us low, the Holy One draws near, steadying our steps.

The Holy One draws near—and we gather our courage.

: Where yokes have weighed on shoulders and spirits,
God is loosening what has held us down.

What held us down is lifting—and we move toward freedom.

Come, all who yearn for justice; all who hope for healing; all who hunger for joy.

We come to the dawning way, we come to the hopeful way, we come to the way God makes glorious.

Invocation

Holy One,

Your light dawns where our shadows are deep est.

Your are never far, your presence remains with us.

Awaken us to the glimmers of your glory
breaking into our world's weariness.

Shine upon the paths we walk—paths obstructed by fear, uncertainty, and the heavy burdens our communities carry.

Yet, your compassion rises like morning light!

Reveal in us the places where liberation is al ready taking root.

As you drew near to Galilee's borderlands,

Draw near to us today.

Let us behold your radiance in overlooked places and in one another.

Make us ready, alert, and courageous— a people who move with your Spirit, who join your work of release, and who make glorious the way where your justice and joy can flourish.

Descend upon us, Spirit of the Living God.

Remain with us.

Awaken us.

And guide our worship into the brightness of your new day.

Amen.

Tumult”*Prayer of Transformation and New Life

Holy Companion of our difficult days, you call us toward what is when we feel worn or un certain.

We confess the weight we carry— worries we rehearse,

the fears we nurture,

the habits that hold us tight,

patterns we cling to,

the moments we turn from compassion,

the truths we avoid.

Unbind what tightens around our hearts.

Lift what has grown too heavy.

Make room in us for generosity, justice, and the courage to begin again.

Shape us for your healing work as this new day unfolds.

Amen.
