God our redeemer,
 you have delivered us from the power
 of darkness
 and brought us into the kingdom of
 your Son:
 grant, that as by his death he has
 recalled us to life,
 so by his continual presence in us he
 may raise us to eternal joy;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING (Alternative readings)

The reading from Acts must be read as either the First or Second Reading.

Either Acts 10:44-end

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter was speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

PSALM Psalm 98

R The Lord has made known his salvation.

Sing to the Lord a new song,
 for he has done marvellous things.
 His own right hand and his holy arm
 have won for him the victory.
 The Lord has made known his
 salvation;

his deliverance has he openly shown in the sight of the nations. R

He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness
 towards the house of Israel,
 and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
 Sound praises to the Lord, all the earth;
 break into singing and make music. R

Make music to the Lord with the lyre, with the lyre and the voice of melody.

With trumpets and the sound of the
 horn
 sound praises before the Lord, the King. R

Let the sea thunder and all that fills it,
 the world and all that dwell upon it.
 Let the rivers clap their hands
 and let the hills ring out together
 before the Lord,
 for he comes to judge the earth.
 In righteousness shall he judge the world
 and the peoples with equity. R

SECOND READING (Alternative readings)

Either 1 John 5:1-6

A reading from the first letter of John.

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

GOSPEL John 15:9-17

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

POST COMMUNION

God our Father,
 whose Son Jesus Christ gives the
 water of eternal life:
 may we thirst for you,
 the spring of life and source of
 goodness,
 through him who is alive and reigns,
 now and for ever.
