Halcyon House, Cabarita Beach

Halcyon House has come a long way from its humble beginnings as a classic Aussie surf motel to being crowned Australia's most instagrammable hotel. It lives up to the hype with eye-popping interiors, poolside glamour, beachfront access, and one of the area's most notable restaurant and bars. A blue and white motif runs throughout the property. It's a little bit Hamptons, a little bit Riviera and a whole lot of "I'm-a-1960s-Californian-movie-star-hanging-out-by-the-pool-talk-to-my-agent" kind of hotel. Paper Daisy – the in-house restaurant – is the star of the show, with sumptuous soft furnishings, blue and white wicker chairs, ornate wallpaper and expertly clustered paintings on the walls. The interiors are by award-winning Brisbane designer Anna Spiro.
