We Worship

Happy Easter! Welcome to St. John's UCC, Fullerton!
We celebrate the life and hope we find together in God's love!
As the music begins, please find your place and quietly center your spirit for our worship of God together.

Our Offering is received as we gather for worship, with plates located on pedestals at the back. We graciously accept your gifts to God of praise and gratitude, to be presented during the service. While guests are welcome to contribute, please know there is no obligation; the financial support of our church is primarily the responsibility of our congregation members.

The Resurrection Cross: As you enter into our Sanctuary today, you are encouraged to please take a flower and place it on the wooden cross prior to taking your seat. The Resurrection Cross will then be presented in our Service today.

Affirmation of Faith

Liturgist: Dewey Yeatts

The Apostles' Creed

One: On this great celebration of Easter, let us unite in our statement of Christian faith.

All: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy *catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Invitation to Confession

Liturgist: Dewey Yeatts

One: Very early in the morning, God created all that is good and beautiful. Very early in the morning, the good news was shared with frightened friends, that Jesus was risen and alive in our midst. Together, united with the Risen Lord, let us come before him to confess the fears and the amazement we bring this morning.

Prayer of Confession

Liturgist: Dewey Yeatts

All: On this morning of “Alleluias,” we confess how human we are. We easily accept the witness of the angel in the tomb, yet find it difficult to share this good news with our family, friends and neighbors. Bring us new life! Where we are tired and stressed, give us the energy to serve your creation; transform our hardened hearts into fountains of grace; forgive us for all the damage we have done, and fill us with the joy of your Spirit. In the name of Jesus, the Risen Christ, who gives us new life, we pray.

Assurance of Pardon

Liturgist: Dewey Yeatts

One: God, our Creator, gives us new life; Christ, our Redeemer, prepares a Table for us; The Holy Spirit, our Joy, calls us to bear witness and serve. This is the most excellent news: the tomb is empty, sin is powerless, death is defeated forever!

All: On this Day of Resurrection, and every day, we rise as God's people, forgiven and made whole. Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Song of Praise

Empty Now
Joseph Martin

There is a manger far away where once a tiny child was laid, where angels sang and shepherds bowed, long ago, far away; the manger is empty now.

There is a temple far away where once a teacher went to pray. He spoke of truth to an angry crowd, long ago, far away; the temple is empty now.

There is a cross far away where once a Lamb for sin was slain. A crown of thorns adorned His brow; the cross is empty, the cross is empty now.

There is a tomb far away where once the Lord of Life was laid. Come and see His linen shroud. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! The tomb is empty now! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*Scripture Reading:

Luke 24:1-12

Read By: Sherri Gangewere

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body.

While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to the hands of sinners and be crucified and on the third day rise again."

Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

One: The word of God for the people of God!

All: Thanks be to God! Amen.

This is What is Meant by Love

Jay Rouse

In the gray half light of dawn, no hope to light the way, just perfect love compelling them to the tomb where Jesus lay. And standing there with broken hearts and nothing left to say, they could not see the One they loved, the stone was rolled away!

O, this is what is meant by love, the ransom has been paid! This is what is meant by love, He has risen from the grave! He has risen from the grave!

Welcomed to this holy place, the veil is torn in two. Salvation won by nail pierced hands, He is making all things new! O, this is what is meant by love, never more a slave. His blood was shed for all the world in a victory o'er the grave!

O, this is what is meant by love, the ransom has been paid! This is what is meant by love, He has risen from the grave! He has risen from the grave!

He lives, He lives! He has risen from the grave!

Pastoral Prayer and Prayers of the People

Rev. Davis

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,

and the glory, forever. Amen

Sacrament of Holy Communion

Rev. Davis

*Please sign the communion book in the back of the church
if you have not done so at a service of communion in 2025.*

We are an Inclusive Community!

In the United Church of Christ, we observe an “open communion.”

ALL people are welcome to receive the gifts of God’s grace and love with us at the table.

In the UCC, ALL means ALL!

The Invitation to Receive

One: When the world was young at that first sunrise and the new light held a promise of new days and fresh mornings, The Word spoke.

All: The Word spoke and creation sparked and the alleluias unfolded the dawn was set free.

One: When the dawn was set free, the trees clapped hands and mountains bowed and the birds sang a new song fresh every morning.

All: Fresh every morning the day holds a hope that this day is God’s, and this day holds the promise and this day is a new beginning.

One: A new beginning is the song of the morning that takes the shadows of night and paints them gold and green, for the earth rejoices.

All: The earth rejoices for stones have rolled and tombs have been empties and angels are whispering, and death has been conquered.

One: Death has been conquered, and resurrection has left footprints in the dew that tell us he has gone ahead of us

All: He is not among the dead, he is not here, for he has risen from the grave! Alleluia!

Earth Day is celebrated each year on April 22. It is a day where we do our best to make sure future generations can continue to enjoy those resources. This year's theme is “Our Power, Our Planet,” inviting everyone to unite behind renewable energy. Renewable energy comes from a source that won't run out, produces little or no harmful emissions when used, and plays a crucial role in preventing further global warming. Some examples of renewable energy are solar power, wind energy, and geothermal energy. To learn more about Earth Day, go to www.earthday.org.
