We Worship

We are proudly an Open & Affirming (ONA) Congregation of the Keystone Conference of the United Church of Christ!

You are WELCOME HERE!

Our Offering is received as we gather for worship, with plates located on pedestals at the back. We graciously accept your gifts of praise and gratitude to God, to be presented during the service. While guests are welcome to contribute, please know there is no obligation; the financial support of our church is primarily the responsibility of our congregation members.

Sunday Social is a time to gather for light refreshments and connection time, to visit, make new friends and build relationships. Join us in Fox Hall July 5 and August 2 as our kitchen leaders and volunteers take a break during the summer months.

Music to Prepare our Hearts for Worship

Remember

Arranged by James Michael Stevens

Call to Worship

Liturgist: Samantha Kistler

One: Today we gather in gratitude celebrating 250 years of courage, sacrifice, justice and hope.

All: We come remembering that freedom is both a gift and a calling to which we aspire and pursue.

One: From voices that cried out for liberty to lives given in its defense, the story continues.

All: We stand within that story called to justice, to compassion, to truth.

One: In a world often divided, we are summoned to something greater

All: Unity that honors dignity, bridges difference, and seeks the good of all.

One: Let us not only celebrate freedom, but live it together, with humility and courage.

All: Come, let us worship the One who calls us into deeper freedom and binds us together in the more perfect union of hope and love.

Opening Hymn WR #731

My Country 'Tis of Thee
Verses 1 and 2

Affirmation of Faith

Liturgist: Samantha Kistler

All: We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Invitation to Confession

Liturgist: Samantha Kistler

One: Two hundred fifty years ago, a vision of freedom was declared — bold, costly, and unfinished. For while freedom was proclaimed, not all were free. While unity was named, division endured. And even now, we confess we have fallen short of the freedom and justice we honor. We have held tightly to our differences, and too loosely to Jesus' command to love. Yet even though we are different in story, in background, in experience — Jesus has made us one. One body. One people. One in grace. Let us now confess our sins before God and one another — seeking a freedom deeper than history can offer: freedom in Christ, where all are reconciled and made new.

Time for Silent Prayer

Prayer of Confession

All: On this 250th anniversary of our nation’s independence, we pause in humility. We acknowledge the wounds woven into our history — the displacement of Indigenous peoples, the sin of slavery, the weight of injustice carried across generations, and the ways inequality still shapes our common life.

We confess our complacency in the face of division, our quickness to judge, and our slowness to listen. We have too often chosen comfort over courage, convenience over compassion, and silence over solidarity.

Forgive us for the times we have treated liberty as a possession rather than a responsibility. Forgive us when we have failed to love our neighbors with the same devotion we give to our own interests. Renew in us a spirit of truth, repentance, and repair. Make us builders of peace, seekers of understanding, and protectors of the vulnerable. Amen.

Sung Response

*Hear our Prayer, O Lord, Hear our Prayer, O Lord;
Incline thine ear to us, and grant us thy peace.*

*Hear our Prayer, O Lord, Hear our Prayer, O Lord;
Incline thine ear to us, and grant us thy peace. Amen*

Assurance of Forgiveness

Liturgist: Samantha Kistler

One: God has created us to be a family – sisters, brothers, siblings, neighbors, friends. No longer strangers, we are all welcome in God’s kingdom of love, grace, and hope.

All: In Christ, we are one. There are no barriers, no differences, no divisions. We are a new people, forgiven and made whole. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Children’s Message

Rev. Steve Davis / Samantha Kistler

Children and youth are welcome to come up to the chancel steps.

*Scripture Reading:

Read by: Dewey Yeatts

Psalms 145: 8-14

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The LORD is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your faithful shall bless you. They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom, and tell of your power, to make known to all people your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. The LORD is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all his deeds. The LORD upholds all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down.

Romans 7: 15-25a

Read by: DonnaLee Yeatts

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I who do it but sin that dwells within me.

For I know that the good does not dwell within me, that is, in my flesh. For the desire to do the good lies close at hand, but not the ability. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that, when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand.

For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members.

Wretched person that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?
Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

One: The word of God for the people of God!

All: Thanks be to God!

Prayers of the People and Pastoral Prayer
(Requests shared from the entry table basket)

Rev. Steve Davis
Samantha Kistler

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen

Sacrament of Holy Communion

*Please sign the communion book in the back of the church
if you have not done so at a service of communion in 2026.*

We Are an Inclusive Community!

In the United Church of Christ, we observe an "Open Communion."

ALL persons are welcome to receive the gifts of God's grace and love with us at the table.

In The UCC, ALL means ALL!

The Invitation to Receive

Rev. Steve Davis / Samantha Kistler

One: Holy and loving God, Creator of all people and all nations, we come before you with grateful hearts for the gift of this land, for the freedoms we cherish, for the sacrifices of those who have served, and for the generations who have worked to build a nation rooted in hope. Yet today we also come with humble hearts, knowing that the dream of liberty and justice for all is still a work before us.

All: We have too often allowed division to become louder than compassion, fear to become stronger than love, and anger to become greater than our call to serve one another. God of peace, heal our hearts and unite our nation.

One: Merciful God, you have called us not simply to be citizens of a country, but citizens of your kingdom of love. Remind us that every person bears your image, that every neighbor is worthy of dignity, and that every voice matters in your sight.

All: Where there is hatred, plant the seeds of love. Where there is bitterness, bring forgiveness. Where there is injustice, allow courage to be awakened. Where there is division, create a deeper understanding. Make us instruments of your peace.

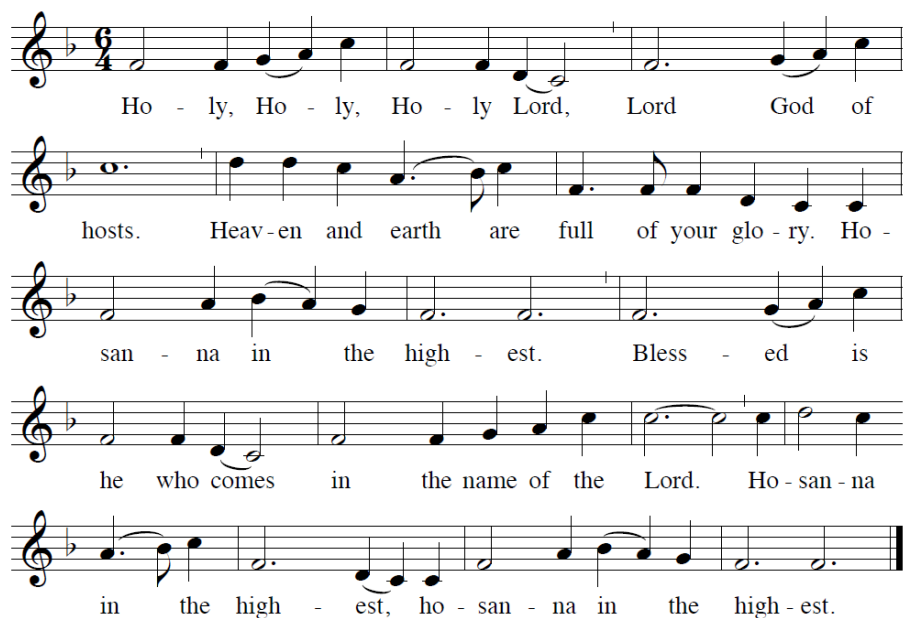

One: God of all nations, we pray for the people of this country. For those who lead and those who serve, for those who defend and protect, for those who teach, heal, build, and care, for those whose hopes are strong and for those who feel forgotten.

All: Bind us together with love that is greater than our differences and perseverance to diligently strive for your more perfect union.

One: Therefore, with all who have gone before us, with the saints of every nation and every generation, we join our voices in proclaiming your goodness and your glory:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, Lord God of hosts. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

One: On the night Jesus gathered with his disciples, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them saying: “Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them saying: “This cup is the new covenant, poured out for you and all people for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, remember me.”

And so, O God, we remember Christ’s life, his love, his suffering, his death, his resurrection, and his promise of a world made new.

Sung Response

*Christ has died, Christ is ris-en, Christ will come a - gain.
Christ has died, Christ is ris-en, Christ will come a - gain.

One: Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us gathered here and upon these gifts of bread and the fruit of the vine. Make this meal a sign of your reconciling love. Strengthen us to be people of peace in a world of conflict, people of hope in a world of uncertainty, and people of love in a world that so desperately needs compassion.

All: Send us forth as peacemakers in your world. Bless those who gather around God's open table and those who long for their place. May we never forget that the freedom we celebrate is fulfilled when it becomes love shared with others.

One: Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

Sung Response

AMEN

Continued prayers for those in our military, especially Dominic DeMilio, Kaden Rossanese, and Nathan Unger.

If you or a family member is admitted to the hospital, tell them you are a member of St. John's or use the church code, 473. To add someone to our prayer list please contact the Church Office.

GRIEF SUPPORT ~ HEALTHCARE MINISTRY

If you're grieving the loss of a loved one, you are invited to attend a monthly daytime grief support group at Asbury UMC, 1533 Springhouse Rd., Allentown. Rev. Evelyn Stupp, Asbury's Pastor of Bereavement and Care Ministries, leads the group. For more information and to indicate your interest in attending, please contact her at estupp@asburylv.org or 610-428-9095.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

VBS will be held this year on Monday, July 27 through Friday, July 31. Keep an eye on your Sunday bulletins and monthly newsletters – more news is coming!

OCEAN CITY, NJ BUS TRIP

Join St. John's for a day trip to Ocean City, NJ on Saturday, July 25th! The cost is $50 per person. Epic Tours will depart from the church parking lot at 8:00 AM and will leave Ocean City at 7:00 PM for the return trip. Beach tags are $10 for anyone age 12 and older. Children 11 and under are free. Active-duty military members and veterans receive free beach admission with proper military or veteran ID. Please sign up on the sheet located on the red board and see me, Michelle G., or any member of the fundraising committee to submit payment. The deadline to sign up and submit payment is Sunday, July 12th.

WHITEHALL FOOD PANTRY

For the month of July, we are collecting pancake mix, pancake syrup, pasta, canned corn, and coffee. Any other food donations as well as monetary donations are always welcome. Your donations can be placed in the shopping card found in the coatroom area next to the sanctuary. For more information or to volunteer on the 4th Monday of the month, contact Gary Black at (484) 274-2405 or email at gary.t.black@outlook.com.

GIANT, WEIS, REDNER'S

Buy Giant and Weis gift cards and the church receives 5% back. Also good for purchasing gas. You can get your gift cards from the office or by seeing Tom Moyer & Carol Raszler every Sunday. Save the register tapes from Redner's and the church receives 1% back. A collection jar for the tapes is on the table in the lounge area or see Karen Stoitsits. Please do not roll the Redner's tapes and do not include other stores' receipts.

BASEBALL AT IRONPIGS

Thank you to almost 50 people who reserved seats at Coca Cola Park for the IronPigs vs. RailRiders baseball game on Tuesday, August 11, at 6:45 p.m. It'll also be "Dollar Dog Night" where hotdogs are $1 all night long. Park information, game tickets, and food vouchers will be distributed to everyone by mid-July. If you have any questions, see Carol Raszler.

BACKPACKS, CALCULATORS & SCHOOL SUPPLIES DRIVE

We are collecting backpacks and school supplies for the children in the Whitehall-Coplay School District. A list of items was included in the July newsletter. A shopping list and a collection bin can be found on the table in the coatroom area next to the sanctuary for you to bring in your donations. In addition, there is also a drive-by scheduled at the Pavilion on Thursday, July 23, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. See Carol Raszler if you have any questions. Deadline to receive items is Sunday, July 26.

MUSIC AT ST. JOHN'S

Mark your calendars! Sunday, July 26, 2026 beginning at 7pm
St. John's Music Ministry is honored to welcome The Jerusalem Singers, under the direction of Pete Deshler. The Jerusalem Singers are a non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to public service and the performance of quality choral music.

COLLECTING ITEMS FOR BAZAAR

While the Bazaar isn't until November, we are beginning to collect items during the summer months. If you have items left from your yard or garage sale; if you are moving and downsizing; if you received gifts you don't like or will never use; or if you have items you don't need anymore, we will take them. They can be brought in to the church office of given to Amy Feidler or Carol Raszler on a Sunday morning. Items we will not accept: clothing, furniture, bowling balls, computers, monitors, printers, encyclopedias, magazines, and records.

READERS, LITURGISTS, GREETERS, AND USHERS

We are seeking additional readers, liturgists, ushers, and greeters to help lead and support our Sunday worship services. These important ministries help create a welcoming and meaningful worship experience for all.

A new schedule for the fall season will be prepared in August, and we would love to include you! If you are interested in serving, please contact Patrick at Music@sjuccf.org or call the church office at extension 13.

MEN'S BREAKFAST GROUP

The Men's Breakfast Group of St. John's meets the first Saturday of every month at the Hamilton Family Restaurant located at 2027 Hamilton St. in Allentown. However, because of the 4th of July holiday, we will meet on July 11 at 8:30am. Rev. Cliff Herring will be the guest speaker. We would be pleased to have you join us. If you would like to know more about this group, please contact Pastor Steve.

YOURS TRULY,

Lord Whistledown

Dear St. John's UCC, Fullerton Members,

My name is Samara Bush and I have been hired as St. John's next Office Administrator. I very much look forward to my new role and to meeting all of you. Here's a peek at my background. I am a native Pennsylvanian, born and raised in the West End of Monroe County. I attended college at Ursinus College and received by BA in English in 2004. My career history is mainly local government, where I've worked for the courts here in Pennsylvania, as well as Las Vegas Justice Court, and as Assistant Zoning Officer in the Borough of East Stroudsburg. I am also a veteran of the United States Navy, where I served on a destroyer based out of Norfolk, Virginia. Additionally, I received my Master's of Public Administration in 2024.

I sought the position of Office Administrator because I have wanted to work in a church environment for several years. I've wanted to work in a faith community for several reasons, including being able to use my skills in a way that benefits and supports the good work of the church and its ties to the community. I am a faithful and spiritual Christian and I am so excited that my work will be in service to St. John's UCC. I am deeply aligned with St. John's UCC open and affirming position and truly believe that all people should be accepted and loved by the church. I enjoy meeting and getting to know people different from myself, and especially enjoy learning new things from them.

Thank you and blessings,

Samara
