NATIONAL TAX STRATEGIST
PROFESSIONAL SPEAKER

Will the IRS teach you how to pay less tax? No, but Ed can!

Considered a National Level thought leader in Tax and Philanthropy, Edward W. Cotney is the author of "Tax Secrets Made Simple". A dynamic speaker, Ed shares tax savvy insights with powerful outcomes to help families and business owners pay millions in less tax. Yes, you will experience a paradigm shift as you learn a better way to enjoy, consume, and transfer more wealth with less tax.

A consummate Southern Gentleman, Ed breaks down those complex hard to understand tax concerns with easy to identify and apply ideas to put "mo-money" in your pocket with each tax return.

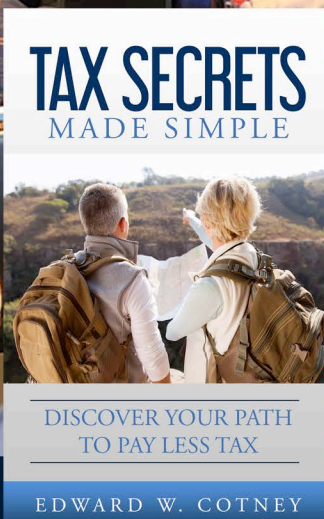

One of his famous teaching strategies shows families and their advisors how to make money donating highly appreciated, poorly performing assets to the causes you care about – better than using cash!

A perfect speaker for professional continuation education seminars, fund raising projects, board of director training, or anyone seeking a better way to do more with their hard-earned dollars!

Learn from Ed if you are overpaying your tax. Learn from Ed if there is a "mo-better" tax smart way to sell a major asset. Learn for yourself if you have overpaid tax for years!

A retired US Military Veteran, two-time cancer survivor, a terrible golfer, but great husband, father and grandfather who loves spending time with his family camping, fishing, and snow skiing.
