About ONNSFA

Background

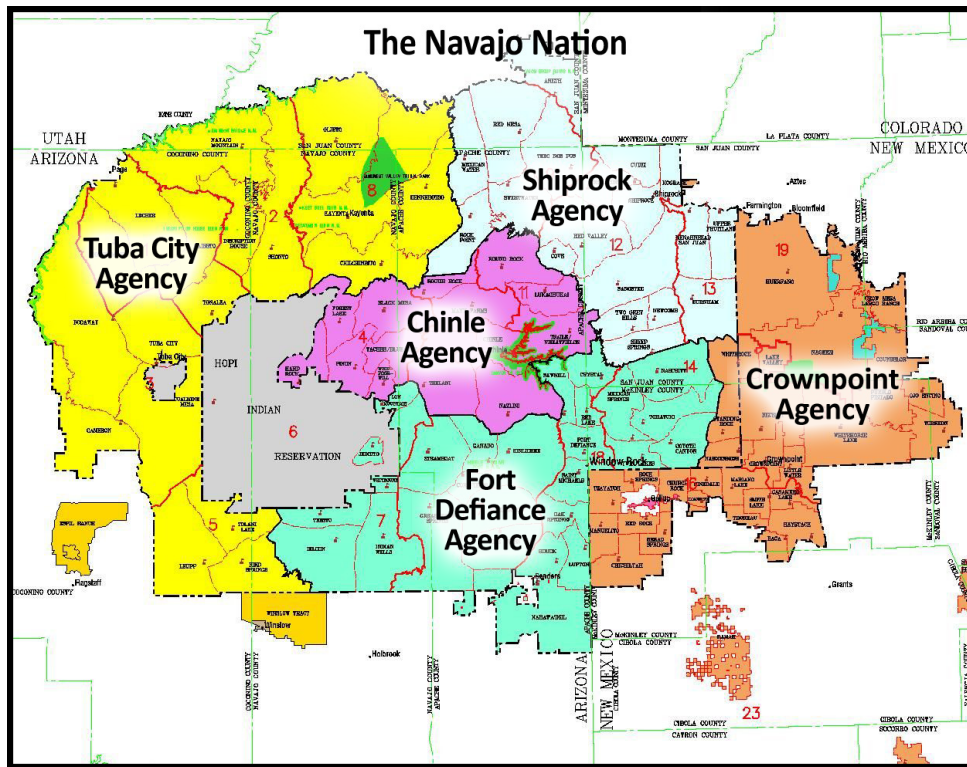

The Office of Navajo Nation Scholarship & Financial Assistance (ONNSFA), provides enrolled members of the Navajo Nation an opportunity to achieve their educational goals. Formerly known as the Navajo Higher Education Office, the ONNSFA was established in 1972 when the Navajo Nation entered into a P.L. 93-638 contract with the Bureau of Indian Affairs to administer the Higher Education Grant. The ONNSFA is housed within the Department of Diné Education.

Funding Sources

The ONNSFA awards students financial aid and scholarship from several sources, including federal funds from the Higher Education Grant, Navajo Nation Funds, Trust Funds, and Corporate Funds. In 2018, the ONNSFA awarded more than $24 million in financial aid and scholarships to approximately 6,000 students seeking a college degree or certificate.

The Navajo Nation & Agencies

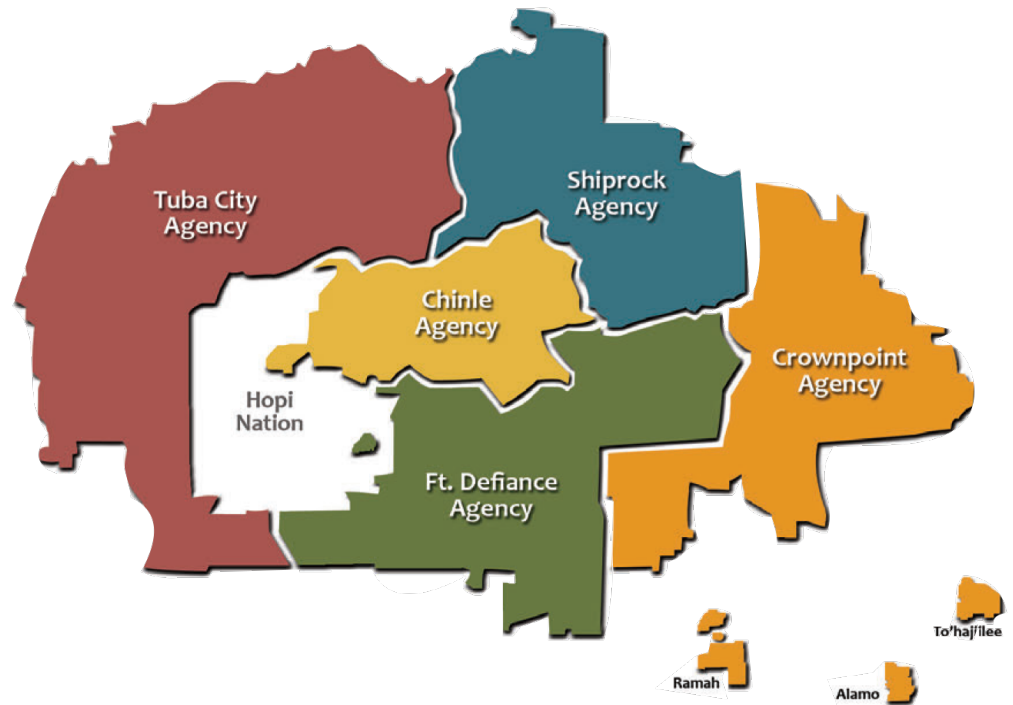

1. Chinle Agency
2. Crownpoint Agency
3. Fort Defiance Agency
4. Shiprock Agency
5. Tuba City Agency

Chapter Affiliation

Each of the Navajo Nation's 110 chapters is served by one of five Office of Navajo Nation Scholarship and Financial Assistance agency offices in Chinle, Ft. Defiance, Crownpoint, Shiprock, and Tuba City.

Applicants are asked to enter the chapter they are affiliated with on their application. This information is used to determine which agency office will review an applicant's file and for reporting purposes.

Students unsure of which chapter to enter on their application are urged to consider the chapter nearest to their residence or the chapter at where their parents are registered to vote. Check the following list to determine which agency office serves your chapter:

3 Types of Federal Student Aid

1

Free money.

Grants are usually based on financial need and don't have to be repaid.

2

Borrowed money.

Loans are an investment in your future. But remember, they must be repaid with interest.

3

Earned money.

A work-study job lets you earn money while you're in school.

Completed my FAFSA. What happens next?

FAFSA processing takes 2-3 business days.

Review Student Aid Report (SAR) and correct if necessary.

Incorrect information delays processing of financial aid.

Student Aid Report includes Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

EFC is used by schools to determine how much aid a student qualifies for.

Complete financial aid file with school.

Must be admitted into a degree-seeking program and enrolled in a certain number of credit hours.
Complete verification if selected.

Completed my FAFSA. What happens next?

Your school's Financial Aid Office will determine eligibility based on several factors:

- Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
- Enrollment Status: Full-time, Part-time, etc.
- Degree you are seeking
- Cost of Attendance
 - Independent or dependent status
 - On- or off-campus budget
 - Tuition/Fees, Books/Supplies, Room/Board, Transportation, Misc/Personal, etc.

Cost of Attendance

- Cost of Attendance $6,500
- Less EFC EFC = Zero / Enrollment = FT
- Equals Financial Need $6,500

- Pell + Navajo Nation
$3,097 + $2,500 = $5,597
- Less Resources $6,500 minus $5,597 = $903
- Equals Unmet Need $903

Office of Navajo Nation Scholarship & Financial Assistance

Chief Manuelito Scholarship

The Navajo Nation established the Chief Manuelito Scholarship program in 1980 to recognize high achieving high school graduates. The scholarship honors Chief Manuelito, Hastiin Ch'ilhaajin, (1818-1893), who encouraged the Navajo people to seek education and protect and preserve Navajo tradition and culture. Students meeting the Chief Manuelito Scholarship criteria are awarded $7,000 per academic year to cover direct educational expenses associated with attending a post-secondary institution. Chief Manuelito Scholarship recipients must maintain a 3.0 GPA and earn 12 or more semester credit hours, based on college-level graded courses, for each academic term.

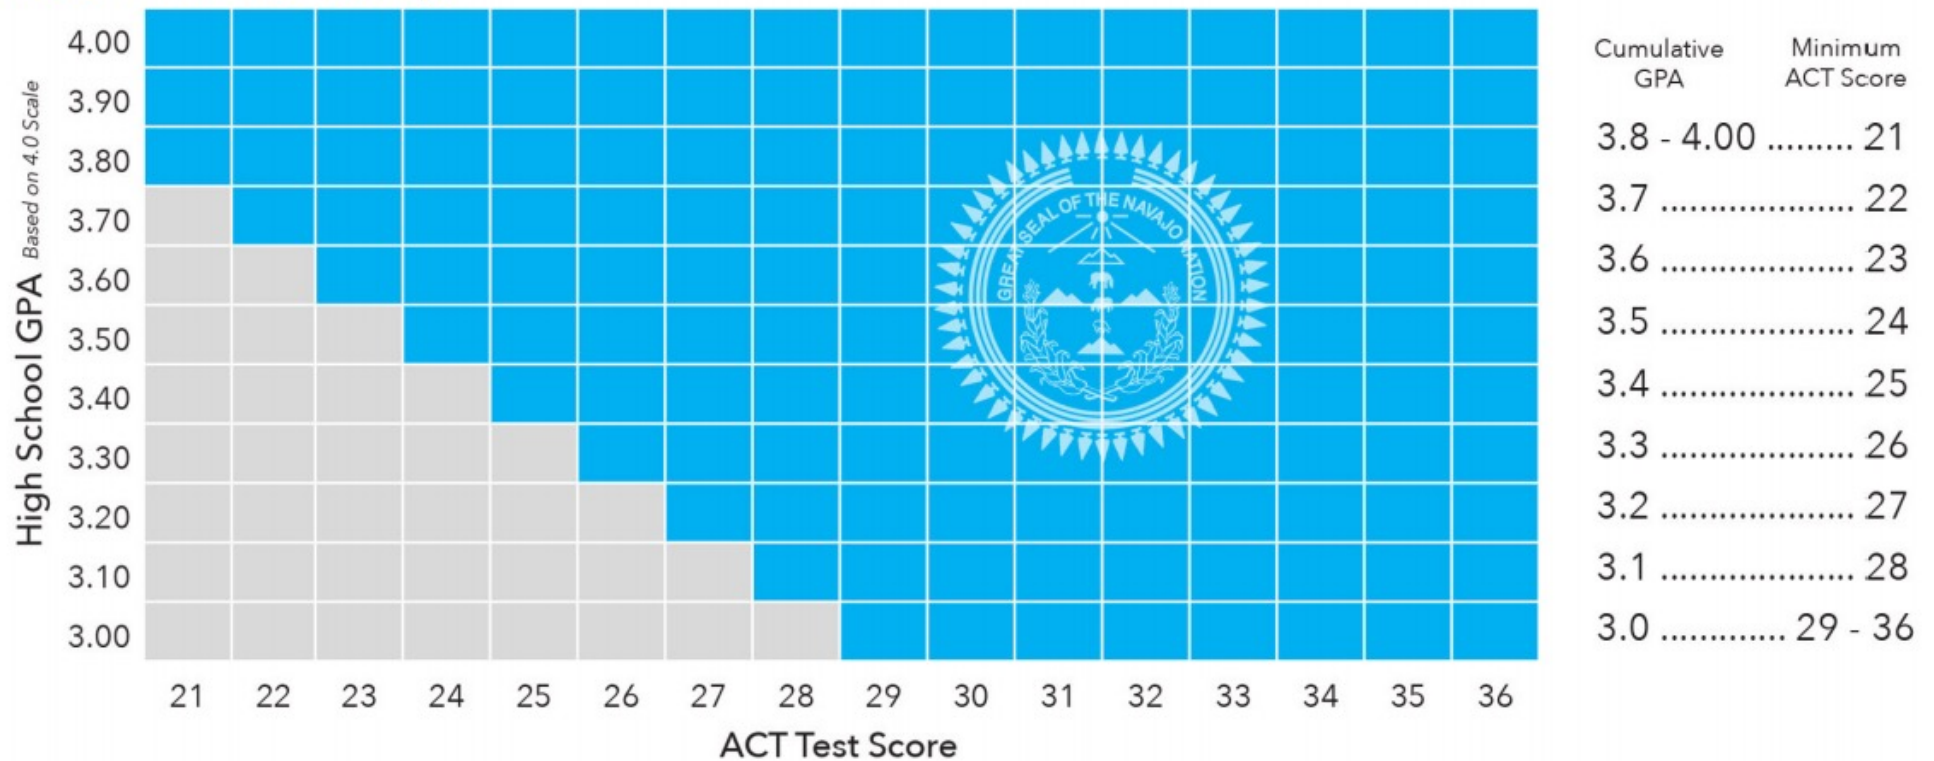

Chief Manuelito Requirements

- Admission to a post-secondary institution.
 - Seeking a Bachelor of Science (BS)/ Bachelor of Art (BA) or Associate of Science (AS)/ Associate of Art (AA)
- Minimum GPA in correlation to ACT score. (See following graph.)
- Completion of required courses:
 - ✓ Navajo Language*
 - 1 unit high school OR
 - 1+ college credit
 - ✓ Navajo Government*
 - 0.5 unit high school credit OR
 - 1+ college credit
- 24/3 Rule for Undergraduates
 - Full-time undergraduates also may qualify upon meeting the following criteria:
 - Completion of 24 semester college-level credit hours (or equivalent trimester or quarter credit hours) with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Students seeking an Associate of Applied Science (AAS), Bachelors of Applied Science (BAS) or Certificate (CERT) are not eligible as the scholarship is limited to college-level courses.
