IN LOVING HONOR OF...

AYANA B. WYLIE

Ayana Wiley is a proud alumnus of Howard University. She was deeply committed to excellence in the arts, through acting and directing. At an early age, Ayana achieved success as a host of BET's, "Teen Summit". She graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic arts in Hollywood, CA before matriculating at Howard University. She would later star in numerous films and plays throughout the country.

Whether comedic or dramatic, Ayana exuded a sense of passion and depth to all of her work. Her favorite line when directing actors was, "Say what you mean and mean what you say!". With an unforgettable laugh, warm smile and resounding voice, Ayana stole the show wherever she went. Faith Rocks! is grateful to honor her life and legacy with the "Still I Rise" Scholarship.

SHILEN WILEY

We are presenting the Faith Rocks!, 1st annual, "Still I Rise" scholarship to, Shilen Wylie, a rising college student. Shilen is the eldest son of Ayana Wiley. He currently resides with his grandmother in Ellicott, MD. Shilen has overcome tremendous odds in his life. Yet, he has risen above them stronger and more committed to success. He is a leader in his local church and community, giving all honor to His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Shilen plans to go on his first missions trip to Uganda, before starting college in the fall. The sky is the limit to what Shilen will achieve. As he continues to rise, one thing is clear: this charming young man will be a leader in America and Global community.
