MOOT COURT CHEAT SHEET

I.R.A.C

I issue -we must portray what part we are addressing of the problem ex: the issue is X raped Y

R rule - we bring attention to the rule that is related to the issue, here we state a case or a piece of legislation ex: the sexual offenses act 2003

A application - we relate the application of the rule or case in relation to our own scenario ex: linking up what happened between X and Y to the Act we mentioned earlier.

C conclusion - we briefly sum up what we stated and link it back to our case. It is very important to always link up anything you are stating to our own case as it demonstrates that it is a valid point.

Your honor = my lady/my lord/Ladyship/Lordship

the opposing part = learned friends

My partner = co counsel

I dont know = i am unable to assist the court at the time

Give me a sec = may I refer to my notes to assist your ladyship/lordship

Can I continue = if my lady/lord has no further questions, may I procecd?

Good morning = may it please the court

Can I have your attention to this = if your ladyship would refer to page x of the bundle

Are you with me? = does my lady have sight?

Im done thank you = if my lady/lord has no further questions that concludes the respondent's/appellants submission

If you are unsure to explain the case facts or not ( sometimes it unnecessary) = would your ladyship find the facts of the case useful ?
