

Prompt of the Week Practice Sheet

Unseen Color

Prompt: Write about a color... without ever saying its name.

Use your senses to paint a picture with words. Make the reader feel the color without seeing it named.

Sensory Brainstorm:

- What does your color feel like?
- What does it sound like?
- What kind of memory does it carry?
- Where do you see it in nature or the world around you?

Now write your poem below:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

\ Bonus Challenge: After you write your poem, read it aloud.*

Does it still sound like your color? Can someone guess it without you saying the name?

