A Limerick by Tammy Friedman

It was yesterday when my pet anteater ran amok.
This caused quite confusion when he began to cluck.
He then began to bark,
running through the park.
Then crashed into a bush, and there he was stuck!

Now it's your turn! Try writing your own silly or surprising limerick below. Remember: Limericks follow an AABBA rhyme scheme and usually have a bouncy rhythm.
